The proposed waiver amendment intends to: add services to include specialized medical equipment and supplies, respite care, environmental accessibility adaptations, and vehicle modifications; remove Case Management as a service and change it to a Medicaid administrative function held by positions within DRS to comply with HCBS conflict free case management requirements; increase Personal Attendant hour maximum from 42 hours per week to 50 hours per week; increase the cost share threshold in the post-eligibility treatment of income formula; increase Incontinence Supply maximum to $200 per month; add personal attendant care services through in-home service providers as a supplement to hiring personal attendants through the self-directed process with current ADLS providers; revise language to allow non-legal representatives to manage and direct services for a participant without requiring they be present when services are being provided; and change language to use aggregate per capita expenditures under the waiver instead of using individual costs. This amendment is a result of public input obtained from participant surveys, feedback from providers, and recommendations from the ADLS workgroup.
