Section 2. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

This code applies at all times to all members of the state military forces and all other military forces attached or assigned thereto.

Section 3. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

Subject matter jurisdiction is established if a nexus exists between an offense, either military or nonmilitary, and the state military force. Courts-martial have primary jurisdiction of military offenses as defined in section 1 of this Act. A proper civilian court has primary jurisdiction of a nonmilitary offense when an act or omission violates both this code and local criminal law, foreign or domestic. In such a case, a court-martial may be initiated only after the civilian authority has declined to prosecute or dismissed the charge, provided jeopardy has not attached. Jurisdiction over attempted crimes, conspiracy crimes, solicitation, and accessory crimes shall be determined by the underlying offense.

Section 4. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

Each person discharged from the state military forces who is later charged with having fraudulently obtained a discharge is, subject to sections 107 to 110, inclusive, of this Act, subject to trial by court-martial on that charge and is, after apprehension, subject to this code while in custody under the direction of the state military forces for that trial. Upon conviction of that charge that person is subject to trial by court-martial for all offenses under this code committed before the fraudulent discharge.

Section 5. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

No person who has deserted from the state military forces may be relieved from amenability to the jurisdiction of this code by virtue of a separation from any later period of service.

Section 6. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

This code has applicability at all times and in all places, provided that either the person subject to the code is in a duty status or, if not in a duty status, that there is a nexus between the act or omission constituting the offense and the efficient functioning of the state military forces. However, this grant of military jurisdiction shall neither preclude nor limit civilian jurisdiction over an offense, which is limited only by the prohibition of double jeopardy.

Section 7. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

Courts-martial and courts of inquiry may be convened and held in units of the state military forces while those units are serving outside the state with the same jurisdiction and powers as to persons subject to this code as if the proceedings were held inside the state, and offenses committed outside the state may be tried and punished either inside or outside the state.

Section 8. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

The senior force judge advocates in each of the state's military forces or that judge advocate's delegates shall make frequent inspections in the field in supervision of the administration of military justice in that force.

Section 9. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

Convening authorities shall at all times communicate directly with their judge advocates in matters relating to the administration of military justice. The judge advocate of any command is entitled to communicate directly with the judge advocate of a superior or subordinate command, or with the state judge advocate.

Section 10. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

No person who has acted as member, military judge, trial counsel, defense counsel, or investigating officer, or who has been a witness, in any case may later act as a judge advocate to any reviewing authority upon the same case.

Section 11. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

Apprehension is the taking of a person into custody.

Section 12. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

Any person authorized by this code or by chapter 47 of Title 10, United States Code, or by regulations issued under either, to apprehend persons subject to this code, any marshal of a court-martial appointed pursuant to the provisions of this code, and any peace officer or civil officer having authority to apprehend offenders under the laws of the United States or of a state, may do so upon probable cause that an offense has been committed and that the person apprehended committed it.

Section 13. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

Commissioned officers, warrant officers, petty officers, and noncommissioned officers have authority to quell quarrels, frays, and disorders among persons subject to this code and to apprehend persons subject to this code who take part therein.

Section 14. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

If an offender is apprehended outside the state, the offender's return to the area must be in accordance with normal extradition procedures or by reciprocal agreement.

Section 15. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

No person authorized by this section to apprehend persons subject to this code or the place where such offender is confined, restrained, held, or otherwise housed may require payment of any fee or charge for so receiving, apprehending, confining, restraining, holding, or otherwise housing a person except as otherwise provided by law.

Section 16. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

Arrest is the restraint of a person by an order, not imposed as a punishment for an offense, directing the person to remain within certain specified limits. Confinement is the physical restraint of a person.

An enlisted member may be ordered into arrest or confinement by any commissioned officer by an order, oral or written, delivered in person or through other persons subject to this code. A commanding officer may authorize warrant officers, petty officers, or noncommissioned officers to order enlisted members of the commanding officer's command or subject to the commanding officer's authority into arrest or confinement.

Section 18. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

A commissioned officer, a warrant officer, or a civilian subject to this code or to trial thereunder may be ordered into arrest or confinement only by a commanding officer to whose authority the person is subject, by an order, oral or written, delivered in person or by another commissioned officer. The authority to order such persons into arrest or confinement may not be delegated.

Section 19. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

No person may be ordered into arrest or confinement except for probable cause.

Section 20. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

Sections 16 to 19, inclusive, of this Act, do not limit the authority of persons authorized to apprehend offenders to secure the custody of an alleged offender until proper authority may be notified.

Section 21. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

If any person subject to this code is placed in arrest or confinement prior to trial, immediate steps shall be taken to inform the person of the specific wrong of which the person is accused and diligent steps shall be taken to try the person or to dismiss the charges and release the person.

Section 22. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

If a person subject to this code is confined before, during, or after trial, confinement may be in a civilian or military confinement facility.

Section 23. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

No person authorized to receive prisoners pursuant to this code may refuse to receive or keep any prisoner committed to the person's charge by a commissioned officer of the state military forces, if the committing officer furnishes a statement, signed by such officer, of the offense charged against the prisoner, unless otherwise authorized by law.

Section 24. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

Each person authorized to receive prisoners pursuant to this code to whose charge a prisoner is committed shall, within twenty-four hours after that commitment or as soon as the person is relieved from guard, report to the commanding officer of the prisoner the name of the prisoner, the offense charged against the prisoner, and the name of the person who ordered or authorized the commitment.

Section 25. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

No member of the state military forces may be placed in confinement in immediate association with enemy prisoners or other foreign nationals not members of the armed forces.

Section 26. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

No person, while being held for trial or awaiting a verdict, may be subjected to punishment or penalty other than arrest or confinement upon the charges pending against the person. The arrest or confinement imposed upon such person may not be any more rigorous than the circumstances required to insure the person's presence, but the person may be subjected to minor punishment during that period for infractions of discipline.

Section 27. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

A person subject to this code accused of an offense against civil authority may be delivered, upon request, to the civil authority for trial or confinement.

Section 28. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

If delivery is made to any civil authority pursuant to section 27 of this Act of a person undergoing sentence of a court-martial, the delivery, if followed by conviction in a civil tribunal, interrupts the execution of the sentence of the court-martial, and the offender after having answered to the civil authorities for the offense shall, upon the request of competent military authority, be returned to the place of original custody for the completion of the person's sentence.

Section 29. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

If the Governor, as commander in chief, issues an order to the National Guard, or any portion thereof, or the commanding officer of an organization issues any order, to perform any military duty that may be required under the law and regulations, and any enlisted service member fails to report for duty, any law enforcement officer shall, upon written request of the commanding officer of such company or troop, if furnished with a copy of the order of the Governor or the commanding officer of the organization, arrest the enlisted service member and deliver that enlisted service member in person to the commanding officer wherever the commanding officer may direct. The law enforcement officer shall be allowed the same fees and mileage for such service as are now allowed by law in criminal cases. The fees and mileage shall in the first instance be paid by the state if the service member's duties are in the service of the state, otherwise the fees and mileage shall be paid as the United States so provides. The fees and mileage may be recovered from the servicemember in accordance with the rules and regulations of the United States armed forces. The secretary of the Department of the Military may promulgate rules, pursuant to chapter 1-26, to provide for the recovery of fines and mileage from a service member who fails to report for military duty as ordered.

Section 30. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

The commanding officer at any encampment, parade, drill, muster, annual training, or other rendezvous of the National Guard may order subordinates to perform any lawful military duty. The commanding officer may place in arrest during the time of such meeting, and confine under guard, if necessary, any officer or enlisted member who disobeys the orders of a superior officer or in any way interrupts the training or exercises. The commanding officer may remove any other person who trespasses on the parade ground or armory, or in any way interrupts the orderly discharge of duty of any National Guard member.

Section 31. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

Under such regulations as prescribed, any commanding officer (and for purposes of this section, officers-in-charge) may impose disciplinary punishments for minor offenses without the intervention of a court-martial pursuant to this section. The Governor, the adjutant general, or an officer of a general or flag rank in command may delegate the powers under this section to a principal assistant who is a member of the state military forces.

Section 32. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

Any commanding officer may impose upon enlisted members of the officer's command the following:

- (1) An admonition;
- (2) A reprimand;
- (3) The withholding of privileges for not more than six months which need not be consecutive;

- (4) The forfeiture of pay of not more than seven day's pay;
- (5) A fine of not more than seven day's pay;
- (6) A reduction to the next inferior pay grade, if the grade from which demoted is within the promotion authority of the officer imposing the reduction or any officer subordinate to the one who imposes the reduction;
- (7) Extra duties, including fatigue or other duties, for not more than fourteen days, which need not be consecutive; and
- (8) Restriction to certain specified limits, with or without suspension from duty, for not more than fourteen days, which need not be consecutive.

Section 33. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

Any commanding officer of the grade of major or lieutenant commander, or above may impose upon enlisted members of the officer's command the following:

- (1) Any punishment authorized in subdivisions (1), (2), and (3) of section 32 of this Act;
- (2) The forfeiture of not more than one-half of one month's pay per month for two months;
- (3) A fine of not more than one month's pay;
- (4) A reduction to the lowest or any intermediate pay grade, if the grade from which demoted is within the promotion authority of the officer imposing the reduction or any officer subordinate to the one who imposes the reduction, but an enlisted member in a pay grade above E-4 may not be reduced more than two pay grades;
- (5) Extra duties, including fatigue or other duties, for not more than forty-five days which need not be consecutive; and
- (6) Restriction to certain specified limits, with or without suspension from duty, for not more than sixty days which need not be consecutive.

Section 34. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

The Governor, the adjutant general, an officer exercising general court-martial convening authority, or an officer of a general or flag rank in command may impose:

- (1) Upon officers of the officer's command:
 - (a) Any punishment authorized in subdivisions (1), (2), (3), and (6) of section 33 of this Act; and
 - (b) Arrest in quarters for not more than thirty days which need not be consecutive; and
- (2) Upon enlisted members of the officer's command, any punishment authorized in section 33 of this Act.

Section 35. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

Whenever any of those punishments are combined to run consecutively, the total length of the combined punishment cannot exceed the authorized duration of the longest punishment in the combination, and there shall be an apportionment of punishments so that no single punishment in the combination exceeds its authorized length under this section.

Section 36. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

Prior to the offer of nonjudicial punishment, the commanding officer shall determine whether arrest in quarters or restriction shall be considered as punishments. If the commanding officer determines that the punishment options may include arrest in quarters or restriction, the accused shall be notified of the right to demand trial by court-martial. If the commanding officer determines that the punishment options do not include arrest in quarters or restriction, the accused shall be notified that there is no right to trial by courts-martial in lieu of nonjudicial punishment.

Section 37. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

The officer who imposes the punishment, or the successor in command, may, at any time, suspend, set aside, mitigate, or remit any part or amount of the punishment and restore all rights, privileges, and property affected. The officer also may:

- (1) Mitigate reduction in grade to forfeiture of pay;
- (2) Mitigate arrest in quarters to restriction; or
- (3) Mitigate extra duties to restriction.

No mitigated punishment may be for a greater period than the punishment mitigated. When mitigating reduction in grade to forfeiture of pay, the amount of the forfeiture may not be greater than the amount that could have been imposed initially under this section by the officer who imposed the punishment mitigated.

Section 38. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

A person punished under this code who considers the punishment unjust or disproportionate to the offense may, through the proper channel, appeal to the next superior authority within fifteen days after the punishment is either announced or sent to the accused, as the commander may determine. The appeal shall be promptly forwarded and decided, but the person punished may in the meantime be required to undergo the punishment adjudged. The superior authority may exercise the same powers with respect to the punishment imposed as may be exercised pursuant to section 37 of this Act by the officer who imposed the punishment. Before acting on an appeal from a punishment, the authority that is to act on the appeal may refer the case to a judge advocate for consideration and advice.

Section 39. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

The imposition and enforcement of disciplinary punishment under this code for any act or omission is not a bar to trial by court-martial or a civilian court of competent jurisdiction for a serious crime or offense growing out of the same act or omission and not properly punishable under this code; but the fact that a disciplinary punishment has been enforced may be shown by the accused upon trial and, when so shown, it shall be considered in determining the measure of punishment to be adjudged in the event of a finding of guilty.

Section 40. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

Whenever a punishment of forfeiture of pay is imposed under this code, the forfeiture may apply to pay accruing before, on, or after the date that punishment is imposed.

Section 41. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

Rules promulgated by the secretary of the Department of the Military, pursuant to chapter 1-26, may prescribe the form of records to be kept of proceedings under this code and may prescribe that certain categories of those proceedings shall be in writing.

Section 42. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

The three kinds of courts-martial in the state military forces are:

- (1) General courts-martial, consisting of:
 - (a) A military judge and not less than five members; or
 - (b) Only a military judge, if before the court is assembled the accused, knowing the identity of the military judge and after consultation with defense counsel, requests, orally on the record or in writing, a court composed only of a military judge and the military judge approves;

- (2) Special courts-martial, consisting of:
 - (a) A military judge and not less than three members; or
 - (b) Only a military judge, if one has been detailed to the court, and the accused requests, orally on the record or in writing, a court composed only of a military judge and the military judge approves; and
- (3) Summary courts-martial, consisting of one commissioned officer.

Section 43. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

Each component of the state military forces has court-martial jurisdiction over all members of the particular component who are subject to this code. Additionally, the Army and Air National Guard state military forces have court-martial jurisdiction over all members subject to this code.

Section 44. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

Subject to section 43 of this Act, general courts-martial have jurisdiction to try persons subject to this code for any offense made punishable by this code, and may, under such limitations as the Governor may prescribe, adjudge any punishment not forbidden by this code.

Section 45. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

Subject to section 43 of this Act, special courts-martial have jurisdiction to try persons subject to this code for any offense made punishable by this code, and may, under such limitations as the Governor may prescribe, adjudge any punishment not forbidden by this code except dishonorable discharge, dismissal, confinement for more than one year, forfeiture of pay exceeding two-thirds pay per month, or forfeiture of pay for more than one year.

Section 46. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

Subject to section 43 of this Act, summary courts-martial have jurisdiction to try persons subject to this code, except officers, cadets, candidates, and midshipmen, for any offense made punishable by this code under such limitations as the Governor may prescribe.

Section 47. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

No person with respect to whom summary courts-martial have jurisdiction may be brought to trial before a summary court-martial if that person objects thereto. If objection to trial by summary court-martial is made by an accused, trial by special or general court-martial may be ordered, as may be appropriate. Summary courts-martial may, under such limitations as the Governor may prescribe, adjudge any punishment not forbidden by this code except dismissal, dishonorable or bad-conduct discharge, confinement for more than one month, restriction to specified limits for more than two months, or forfeiture of more than two-thirds of one month's pay.

Section 48. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

A general court-martial may be convened by the Governor or the adjutant general.

If any such commanding officer is an accuser, the court shall be convened by superior competent authority and may in any case be convened by such superior authority if considered desirable by such authority.

Section 49. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

A special courts-martial may be convened by:

- (3) The commanding officer of a brigade, regiment, group, detached battalion, or corresponding unit of the Army;
- (4) The commanding officer of a wing, group, separate squadron, or corresponding unit of the Air Force; or
- (5) The commanding officer or officer in charge of any other command when empowered by the adjutant general.

If any such officer is an accuser, the court shall be convened by superior competent authority and may in any case be convened by such superior authority if considered desirable by such authority.

Section 50. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

A summary court-martial may be convened by:

- (1) Any person who may convene a general or special court-martial;
- (2) The commanding officer of a detached company or other detachment, or corresponding unit of the Army;
- (3) The commanding officer of a detached squadron or other detachment, or corresponding unit of the Air Force; or
- (4) The commanding officer or officer in charge of any other command when empowered by the adjutant general.

If only one commissioned officer is present with a command or detachment that officer shall be the summary court-martial of that command or detachment and shall hear and determine all summary court-martial cases. A summary court-martial may, however, be convened in any case by superior competent authority if considered desirable by such authority.

Section 51. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

Section 53. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

Any enlisted member of the state military forces who is not a member of the same unit as the accused may serve on general and special courts-martial for the trial of any enlisted member subject to this code. However, that member shall serve as a member of a court only if, before the conclusion of a session called by the military judge pursuant to section 97 of this Act prior to trial or, in the absence of such a session, before the court is assembled for the trial of the accused, the accused personally has requested orally on the record or in writing that enlisted members serve on it. After such a request, the accused may not be tried by a general or special court-martial the membership of which does not include enlisted members in a number comprising at least one-third of the total membership of the court, unless eligible enlisted members cannot be obtained on account of physical conditions or military exigencies. If such members cannot be obtained, the court may be assembled and the trial held without them, but the convening authority shall make a detailed written statement, to be appended to the record, stating why the members could not be obtained. In this section, unit, means any regularly organized body of the state military forces not larger than a company, a squadron, a division of the naval militia, or a body corresponding to one of them.

Section 54. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

If it can be avoided, no person subject to this code may be tried by a court-martial where any member is junior to the accused in rank or grade.

Section 55. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

If convening a court-martial, the convening authority shall detail as members thereof such members of the state military forces as, in the convening authority's opinion, are best qualified for the duty by reason of age, education, training, experience, length of service, and judicial temperament. No member of the state military forces is eligible to serve as a member of a general or special court-martial if that member is the accuser, a witness, or has acted as investigating officer or as counsel in the same case.

Section 56. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

Before a court-martial is assembled for the trial of a case, the convening authority may excuse a member of the court from participating in the case. The convening authority may delegate the authority under this section to a judge advocate or to any other principal assistant.

Section 57. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

A military judge shall be detailed to each general and special court-martial. The military judge shall preside over each open session of the court-martial to which the military judge has been detailed.

Section 58. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

A military judge shall be:

- (1) An active or retired commissioned officer of an organized state or federal military force;
- (2) A member in good standing of the bar of the highest court of a state or a member of the bar of a federal court for at least five years; and
- (3) Certified as qualified for duty as a military judge by the senior force judge advocate which is the same force as the accused.

Section 59. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

In the instance if a military judge is not a member of the bar of the highest court of the state, the military judge shall be deemed admitted pro hac vice, subject to filing a certificate with the senior force judge advocate which is the same force as the accused setting forth such qualifications provided in section 58 of this Act.

Section 60. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

The military judge of a general or special court-martial shall be designated by the senior force judge advocate which is the same force as the accused, or a designee, for detail by the convening authority. Neither the convening authority nor any staff member of the convening authority may prepare or review any report concerning the effectiveness, fitness, or efficiency of the military judge so detailed, which relates to performance of duty as a military judge.

Section 61. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

No person may act as military judge in a case if that person is the accuser or a witness, or has acted as investigating officer or a counsel in the same case.

Section 62. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

The military judge of a court-martial may not consult with the members of the court except in the presence of the accused, trial counsel, and defense counsel nor vote with the members of the court.

evidence against the person in a trial by court-martial.

Section 79. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

Section 81. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

No charge or specification may be referred to a general court-martial for trial until a thorough and impartial investigation of all the matters set forth therein has been made. This investigation shall include inquiry as to the truth of the matter set forth in the charges, consideration of the form of charges, and a recommendation as to the disposition which should be made of the case in the interest of justice and discipline.

Section 82. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

At that investigation, full opportunity shall be given to the accused to cross-examine any witness against the accused, if the witness is available, and to present anything the accused may desire in the accused's own behalf, either in defense or mitigation, and the investigating officer shall examine any available witness requested by the accused. If any charge is forwarded after the investigation, the charge shall be accompanied by a statement of the substance of the testimony taken on both sides and a copy thereof shall be given to the accused.

A demand for further investigation entitles the accused to recall any witness for further cross-examination and to offer any new evidence in the accused's own behalf.

Section 84. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

If evidence adduced in an investigation indicates that the accused committed an uncharged offense, the investigating officer may investigate the subject matter of that offense without the accused having first been charged with the offense if the accused is:

- (3) Afforded the opportunities for representation, cross-examination, and presentation prescribed in section 82 of this Act.

follows:

If a person is held for trial by general court-martial, the commanding officer shall within fifteen days after the accused is ordered into arrest or confinement, if practicable, forward the charges, together with the investigation and allied papers, to the person exercising general court-martial jurisdiction. If that is not practicable, the commanding officer shall report in writing to that person the reasons for delay.

Section 87. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

Before directing the trial of any charge by general court-martial, the convening authority shall refer it to a judge advocate for consideration and advice. - (3) A court-martial would have jurisdiction over the accused and the offense.

Section 88. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

The advice of the judge advocate pursuant to section 87 of this Act with respect to a specification under a charge shall include a written and signed statement by the judge advocate:

If the charges or specifications are not correct formally or do not conform to the substance of the evidence contained in the report of the investigating officer, formal correction, and such changes in the charges and specifications as are needed to make them conform to the evidence may be made.

Section 90. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

zealous representation before a court-martial.

Section 94. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

The trial counsel of a general or special court-martial shall be a member in good standing of a state or federal bar and shall prosecute in the name of the State of South Dakota, and shall, under the direction of the court, prepare the record of the proceedings.

- (3) That the present whereabouts of the witness is unknown.

Section 126. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

In any case not extending to the dismissal of a commissioned officer, the sworn testimony, contained in the duly authenticated record of proceedings of a court of inquiry, of a person whose oral testimony cannot be obtained, may, if otherwise admissible under the rules of evidence, be read in evidence by any party before a court-martial if the accused was a party before the court of inquiry and if the same issue was involved or if the accused consents to the introduction of such evidence.

Such testimony may be read in evidence only by the defense in cases extending to the dismissal of a commissioned officer.

Such testimony may also be read in evidence before a court of inquiry.

Section 127. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

It is an affirmative defense in a trial by court-martial that, at the time of the commission of the acts constituting the offense, the accused, as a result of a severe mental disease or defect, was unable to appreciate the nature and quality or the wrongfulness of the acts. Mental disease or defect does not otherwise constitute a defense.

Section 128. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

The accused has the burden of proving the defense of lack of mental responsibility by clear and convincing evidence.

Section 129. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

If the lack of mental responsibility of the accused with respect to an offense is properly at issue, the military judge shall instruct the members of the court as to the defense of lack of mental responsibility under this section and charge them to find the accused:

- (1) Guilty;
- (2) Not guilty; or
- (3) Not guilty only by reason of lack of mental responsibility.

Section 130. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

Section 129 of this Act does not apply to a court-martial composed of a military judge only. In the case of a court-martial composed of a military judge only or a summary court-martial officer, if the lack of mental responsibility of the accused with respect to an offense is properly at issue, the military judge or summary court-martial officer shall find the accused:

- (1) Guilty;
- (2) Not guilty; or

- (3) Not guilty only by reason of lack of mental responsibility.

Section 131. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

Notwithstanding the provisions of section 136 of this Act, the accused shall be found not guilty only by reason of lack of mental responsibility if:

- (1) A majority of the members of the court-martial present at the time the vote is taken determines that the defense of lack of mental responsibility has been established; or
- (2) In the case of a court-martial composed of a military judge only or a summary court-martial officer, the military judge or summary court-martial officer determines that the defense of lack of mental responsibility has been established.

Section 132. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

Voting by members of a general or special court-martial on the findings and on the sentence shall be by secret written ballot. The junior member of the court shall count the votes. The count shall be checked by the president, who shall forthwith announce the result of the ballot to the members of the court.

Section 133. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

The military judge shall rule upon all questions of law and all interlocutory questions arising during the proceedings. Any such ruling made by the military judge upon any question of law or any interlocutory question other than the factual issue of mental responsibility of the accused is final and constitutes the ruling of the court. However, the military judge may change the ruling at any time during the trial. Unless the ruling is final, if any member objects to the ruling, the court shall be cleared and closed and the question decided by a voice vote as provided in section 136 of this Act, beginning with the junior in rank.

Section 134. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

Before a vote is taken on the findings, the military judge shall, in the presence of the accused and counsel, instruct the members of the court as to the elements of the offense and charge them that:

- (1) The accused shall be presumed to be innocent until the accused's guilt is established by legal and competent evidence beyond reasonable doubt;
- (2) In the case being considered, if there is a reasonable doubt as to the guilt of the accused, the doubt shall be resolved in favor of the accused and the accused shall be acquitted;
- (3) If there is a reasonable doubt as to the degree of guilt, the finding shall be in a lower degree as to which there is no reasonable doubt; and
- (4) The burden of proof to establish the guilt of the accused beyond reasonable doubt is upon the state.

Section 135. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

Sections 132 to 134, inclusive, of this Act, do not apply to a court-martial composed of a military judge only. The military judge of such a court-martial shall determine all questions of law and fact arising during the proceedings and, if the accused is convicted, adjudge an appropriate sentence. The military judge of such a court-martial shall make a general finding and shall in addition, on request, find the facts specially. If an opinion or memorandum of decision is filed, it shall be sufficient if the findings of fact appear in the opinion or memorandum.

Section 136. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

No person may be convicted of an offense except as provided in section 117 of this Act or by the concurrence of two-thirds of the members present at the time the vote is taken.

All other questions to be decided by the members of a general or special court-martial shall be determined by a majority vote, but a determination to reconsider a finding of guilty or to reconsider a sentence, with a view toward decreasing it, may be made by any lesser vote which indicates that the reconsideration is not opposed by the number of votes required for that finding or sentence. A tie vote on a challenge disqualifies the member challenged. A tie vote on a motion relating to the question of the accused's sanity is a determination against the accused. A tie vote on any other question is a determination in favor of the accused.

Section 137. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

A court-martial shall announce its findings and sentence to the parties as soon as determined.

Section 138. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

Each general and special court-martial shall keep a separate record of the proceedings in each case brought before it, and the record shall be authenticated by the signature of the military judge. If the record cannot be authenticated by the military judge by reason of the judge's death, disability, or absence, it shall be authenticated by the signature of the trial counsel or by that of a member, if the trial counsel is unable to authenticate it by reason of the counsel's death, disability, or absence. In a court-martial consisting of only a military judge, the record shall be authenticated by the court reporter under the same conditions which would impose such a duty on a member under this section.

Section 139. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

A complete verbatim record of the proceedings and testimony shall be prepared in each general and special court-martial case resulting in a conviction.

In all other court-martial cases, the record shall contain such matters as may be prescribed by rules promulgated pursuant to chapter 1-26 by the secretary of the Department of the Military.

Section 140. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

Each summary court-martial shall keep a separate record of the proceedings in each case. The record shall be authenticated in the manner as may be prescribed by rules promulgated pursuant to chapter 1-26 by the secretary of the Department of the Military.

Section 141. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

A copy of the record of the proceedings of each general and special court-martial shall be given to the accused as soon as it is authenticated.

Section 142. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

Punishment by flogging, or by branding, marking, or tattooing on the body, or any other cruel or unusual punishment may not be adjudged by a court-martial or inflicted upon any person subject to this code. The use of irons, single or double, except for the purpose of safe custody, is prohibited.

Section 143. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

The punishment which a court-martial may direct for an offense may not exceed such limits as prescribed by this code, but in no instance may a sentence exceed more than ten years for a military offense, nor may a sentence of death be adjudged. A conviction by general court-martial of any military offense for which an accused may receive a sentence of confinement for more than one year is a felony offense. Except for convictions by a summary court-martial, all other military offenses are misdemeanors. Any conviction by a summary court-martial is not a criminal conviction.

Section 144. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

The limits of punishment for violations of the punitive provision prescribed by this code shall be lesser of the sentences prescribed by the manual for courts-martial of the United States in effect on January 1, 2012, and the state manual for courts-martial. However, in no instance may any punishment exceed that authorized by this code.

Section 145. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

If a sentence of a court-martial as lawfully adjudged and approved includes a forfeiture of pay or allowances in addition to confinement not suspended, the forfeiture may apply to pay or allowances becoming due on or after the date the sentence is approved by the convening authority. No forfeiture may extend to any pay or allowances accrued before that date.

Section 146. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

Any period of confinement included in a sentence of a court-martial begins to run from the date the sentence is adjudged by the court-martial, but periods during which the sentence to confinement is suspended or deferred shall be excluded in computing the service of the term of confinement. All other sentences of courts-martial are effective on the date ordered executed.

Section 147. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

On application by an accused who is under sentence to confinement that has not been ordered executed, the convening authority or, if the accused is no longer under that person's jurisdiction, the person exercising general court-martial jurisdiction over the command to which the accused is currently assigned, may in that person's sole discretion defer service of the sentence to confinement.

The deferment shall terminate when the sentence is ordered executed. The deferment may be rescinded at any time by the person who granted it or, if the accused is no longer under that person's jurisdiction, by the person exercising general court-martial jurisdiction over the command to which the accused is currently assigned.

Section 148. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

In any case in which a court-martial sentences an accused referred to in section 149 of this Act to confinement, the convening authority may defer the service of the sentence to confinement, without the consent of the accused, until after the accused has been permanently released to the state military forces by a state, the United States, or a foreign country referred to in that section.

Section 149. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

Section 148 of this Act applies to a person subject to this code who:

- (1) While in the custody of a state, the United States, or a foreign country is temporarily returned by that state, the United States, or a foreign country to the state military forces for trial by court-martial; and
- (2) After the court-martial, is returned to that state, the United States, or a foreign country under the authority of a mutual agreement or treaty, as the case may be.

For the purposes of this section and section 148 of this Act, the term, state, includes the District of Columbia and any commonwealth, territory, or possession of the United States.

Section 150. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

In any case in which a court-martial sentences an accused to confinement and the sentence to confinement has been ordered executed, but in which review of the case pursuant to section 190 of this Act is pending, the adjutant general may defer further service of the sentence to confinement while that review is pending.

Section 151. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

A sentence of confinement adjudged by a court-martial, whether or not the sentence includes discharge or dismissal, and whether or not the discharge or dismissal has been executed, may be carried into execution by confinement in any place authorized by this code. Any person so confined is subject to the same discipline and treatment as any person regularly confined or committed to that place of confinement.

Section 152. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

The omission of hard labor as a sentence authorized under this code does not deprive the state confinement facility from employing it, if it otherwise is within the authority of that facility to do so.

Section 153. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

No place of confinement may require payment of any fee or charge for so receiving or confining a person except as otherwise provided by law. If no military confinement facility is available and a civilian facility charges fees as provided by law, the person confined shall be responsible for such costs.

Section 154. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

A court-martial sentence of an enlisted member in a pay grade above E-1, as approved by the convening authority, that includes:

(1) A dishonorable or bad-conduct discharge; or

(2) Confinement;

reduces that member to pay grade E-1, effective on the date of that approval.

Section 155. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

If the sentence of a member who is reduced in pay grade pursuant to subdivision (1) of section 154 of this Act is set aside or disapproved, or, as finally approved, does not include any punishment pursuant to subdivisions (1) or (2) of section 154 of this Act, the rights and privileges of which the person was deprived because of that reduction shall be restored, including pay and allowances.

Section 156. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

A court-martial sentence described in section 157 of this Act shall result in the forfeiture of pay, or of pay and allowances, due that member during any period of confinement or parole. The forfeiture pursuant to this section shall take effect on the date determined pursuant to section 145 of this Act and may be deferred as provided by that section. The pay and allowances forfeited, in the case of a general court-martial, shall be all pay and allowances due that member during such period and, in the case of a special court-martial, shall be two-thirds of all pay due that member during such period.

Section 157. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

A sentence covered by section 156 of this Act is any sentence that includes:

(1) Confinement for more than six months; or

(2) Confinement for six months or less and a dishonorable or bad-conduct discharge or dismissal.

Section 158. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

In a case involving an accused who has dependents, the convening authority or other person acting under this code may waive any or all of the forfeitures of pay and allowances required by section 156 of this Act for a period not to exceed six months. Any amount of pay or allowances that would be forfeited, except for a waiver under this section, shall be paid, as the convening authority or other person taking action directs, to the dependents of the accused.

Section 159. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

If the sentence of a member who forfeits pay and allowances pursuant to section 156 of this Act is set aside or disapproved or, as finally approved, does not provide for a punishment referred to in section 157 of this Act, the member shall be paid the pay and allowances which the member would have been paid, except for the forfeiture, for the period during which the forfeiture was in effect.

Section 160. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

A finding or sentence of a court-martial may not be held incorrect on the ground of an error of law unless the error materially prejudices the substantial rights of the accused.

Section 161. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

Any reviewing authority with the power to approve or affirm a finding of guilty may approve or affirm, instead, so much of the finding as includes a lesser included offense.

Section 162. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

The findings and sentence of a court-martial shall be reported promptly to the convening authority after the announcement of the sentence.

Section 163. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

The accused may submit to the convening authority matters for consideration by the convening authority with respect to the findings and the sentence. Any such submission shall be in writing. Except in a summary court-martial case, such a submission shall be made within ten days after the accused has been given an authenticated record of trial and, if applicable, the recommendation of a judge advocate pursuant to section 170 of this Act. In a summary court-martial case, such a submission shall be made within seven days after the sentence is announced.

Section 164. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

If the accused shows that additional time is required for the accused to submit such matters, the convening authority or other person taking action pursuant to this code, for good cause, may extend the applicable period pursuant to section 163 of this Act for not more than an additional twenty days.

Section 165. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

In a summary court-martial case, the accused shall be promptly provided a copy of the record of trial for use in preparing a submission authorized by section 163 of this Act.

Section 166. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

The accused may waive the right to make a submission to the convening authority as authorized by section 163 of this Act. Such a waiver shall be made in writing and may not be revoked. For the purposes of section 168 of this Act, the time within which the accused may make a submission under section 163 of this Act shall be deemed to have expired upon the submission of such a waiver to the convening authority.

Section 167. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

The authority pursuant to section 169 of this Act to modify the findings and sentence of a court-martial is a matter of command prerogative involving the sole discretion of the convening authority. If it is impractical for the convening authority to act, the convening authority shall forward the case to a person exercising general court-martial jurisdiction who may take action pursuant to section 168 of this Act.

Section 168. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

Action on the sentence of a court-martial shall be taken by the convening authority or by another person authorized to act pursuant to this code. Such action may be taken only after consideration of any matters submitted by the accused pursuant to section 163 of this Act or after the time for submitting such matters expires, whichever is earlier. The convening authority or other person taking such action, in that person's sole discretion may approve, disapprove, commute, or suspend the sentence in whole or in part.

Section 169. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

Action on the findings of a court-martial by the convening authority or other person acting on the sentence is not required. However, such person, in the person's sole discretion may:

- (1) Dismiss any charge or specification by setting aside a finding of guilty thereto; or
- (2) Change a finding of guilty to a charge or specification to a finding of guilty to an offense that is a lesser included offense of the offense stated in the charge or specification.

Section 170. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

Before acting pursuant to section 169 of this Act on any general or special court-martial case in which there is a finding of guilt, the convening authority or other person taking action shall obtain and consider the written recommendation of a judge advocate. The convening authority or other person taking action shall refer the record of trial to the judge advocate, and the judge advocate shall use such record in the preparation of the recommendation. The recommendation of the judge advocate shall include such matters as may be prescribed by rules promulgated pursuant to chapter 1-26 by the secretary of the Department of the Military and shall be served on the accused, who may submit any matter in response pursuant to section 163 of this Act. Failure to object in the response to the recommendation or to any matter attached to the recommendation waives the right to object thereto.

Section 171. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

The convening authority or other person taking action pursuant to this code, in the person's sole discretion, may order a proceeding in revision or a rehearing.

Section 172. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

A proceeding in revision may be ordered if there is an apparent error or omission in the record or if the record shows improper or inconsistent action by a court-martial with respect to the findings or sentence that can be rectified without material prejudice to the substantial rights of the accused.

In no case, however, may a proceeding in revision:

- (1) Reconsider a finding of not guilty of any specification or a ruling which amounts to a finding of not guilty;
- (2) Reconsider a finding of not guilty of any charge, unless there has been a finding of guilty under a specification laid under that charge, which sufficiently alleges a violation of some section of this code; or

- (3) Increase the severity of the sentence unless the sentence prescribed for the offense is mandatory.

Section 173. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

A rehearing may be ordered by the convening authority or other person taking action pursuant to this code if that person disapproves the findings and sentence and states the reasons for disapproval of the findings. If such person disapproves the findings and sentence and does not order a rehearing, that person shall dismiss the charges. A rehearing as to the findings may not be ordered where there is a lack of sufficient evidence in the record to support the findings. A rehearing as to the sentence may be ordered if the convening authority or other person taking action under this section disapproves the sentence.

Section 174. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

In each case subject to appellate review under this code, the accused may file with the convening authority a statement expressly withdrawing the right of the accused to such appeal. Such a withdrawal shall be signed by both the accused and the accused's defense counsel and shall be filed in accordance with appellate procedures as provided by law.

Section 175. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

The accused may withdraw an appeal at any time in accordance with appellate procedures as provided by law.

Section 176. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

In a trial by court-martial in which a punitive discharge may be adjudged, the state may appeal the following, other than a finding of not guilty with respect to the charge or specification by the members of the court-martial, or by a judge in a bench trial so long as it is not made in reconsideration:

- (1) An order or ruling of the military judge which terminates the proceedings with respect to a charge or specification;
- (2) An order or ruling which excludes evidence that is substantial proof of a fact material in the proceeding;
- (3) An order or ruling which directs the disclosure of classified information;
- (4) An order or ruling which imposes sanctions for nondisclosure of classified information;
- (5) A refusal of the military judge to issue a protective order sought by the state to prevent the disclosure of classified information; or
- (6) A refusal by the military judge to enforce an order described in subdivision (5) that has previously been issued by appropriate authority.

Section 177. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

An appeal of an order or ruling may not be taken unless the trial counsel provides the military judge with written notice of appeal from the order or ruling within seventy-two hours of the order or ruling. Such notice shall include a certification by the trial counsel that the appeal is not taken for the purpose of delay and, if the order or ruling appealed is one which excludes evidence, that the evidence excluded is substantial proof of a fact material in the proceeding.

Section 178. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

An appeal pursuant to sections 176 and 177 of this Act shall be diligently prosecuted as provided by law.

Section 179. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

An appeal pursuant to section 176 and 177 of this Act shall be forwarded to the court prescribed in section 190 of this Act. In ruling on an appeal pursuant to section 176 and 177 of this Act, that court may act only with respect to matters of law.

Section 180. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

Any period of delay resulting from an appeal pursuant to section 176 and 177 of this Act shall be excluded in deciding any issue regarding denial of a speedy trial unless an appropriate authority determines that the appeal was filed solely for the purpose of delay with the knowledge that it was totally frivolous and without merit.

Section 181. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

Each rehearing under this code shall take place before a court-martial composed of members not members of the court-martial that first heard the case. Upon a rehearing the accused may not be tried for any offense of which the accused was found not guilty by the first court-martial, and no sentence in excess of or more severe than the original sentence may be approved, unless the sentence is based upon a finding of guilty of an offense not considered upon the merits in the original proceedings, or unless the sentence prescribed for the offense is mandatory. If the sentence approved after the first court-martial was in accordance with a pretrial agreement and the accused at the rehearing changes a plea with respect to the charges or specifications upon which the pretrial agreement was based, or otherwise does not comply with the pretrial agreement, the approved sentence as to those charges or specifications may include any punishment not in excess of that lawfully adjudged at the first court-martial.

Section 182. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

Each general and special court-martial case in which there has been a finding of guilty shall be reviewed by the state's senior force judge advocate. The state's senior force judge advocate may not review a case under this section if that person has acted in the same case as an accuser, investigating officer, member of the court, military judge, or counsel or has otherwise acted on behalf of the prosecution or defense. The state's senior force judge advocate's review shall be in writing and shall contain the following:

- (1) Conclusions as to whether:
 - (a) The court had jurisdiction over the accused and the offense;
 - (b) The charge and specification stated an offense; and
 - (c) The sentence was within the limits prescribed as a matter of law;
- (2) A response to each allegation of error made in writing by the accused; and
- (3) If the case is sent for action pursuant to section 183 of this Act, a recommendation as to the appropriate action to be taken and an opinion as to whether corrective action is required as a matter of law.

Section 183. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

The record of trial and related documents in each case reviewed pursuant to section 182 of this Act shall be sent for action to the adjutant general, if:

- (1) The judge advocate who reviewed the case recommends corrective action;
- (2) The sentence approved pursuant to section 168 of this Act extends to dismissal, a bad-conduct or dishonorable discharge, or confinement for more than six months; or

- (3) Such action is otherwise required by rules promulgated by the secretary of the Department of the Military pursuant to chapter 1-26.

Section 184. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

The adjutant general may:

- (1) Disapprove or approve the findings or sentence, in whole or in part;
- (2) Remit, commute, or suspend the sentence in whole or in part;
- (3) Except where the evidence was insufficient at the trial to support the findings, order a rehearing on the findings, on the sentence, or on both; or
- (4) Dismiss the charges.

Section 185. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

If a rehearing is ordered but the convening authority finds a rehearing impracticable, the convening authority shall dismiss the charges.

Section 186. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

If the opinion of the state's senior force judge advocate, in the state's senior force judge advocate's review pursuant to section 182 of this Act is that corrective action is required as a matter of law and if the adjutant general does not take action that is at least as favorable to the accused as that recommended by the judge advocate, the record of trial and action thereon shall be sent to the Governor for review and action as deemed appropriate.

Section 187. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

The state's senior force judge advocate may review any case in which there has been a finding of not guilty of all charges and specifications. The state's senior force judge advocate may not review a case under this section if that person has acted in the same case as an accuser, investigating officer, member of the court, military judge, or counsel or has otherwise acted on behalf of the prosecution or defense. The state's senior force judge advocate's review shall be limited to questions of subject matter jurisdiction.

Section 188. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

The record of trial and related documents in each case reviewed pursuant to section 187 of this Act shall be sent for action to the adjutant general. The adjutant general may:

- (1) If subject matter jurisdiction is found to be lacking, void the court-martial ab initio, with or without prejudice to the government, as the adjutant general deems appropriate; or
- (2) Return the record of trial and related documents to the senior force judge advocate for appeal by the government as provided by law.

Section 189. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

Except as otherwise required by this code, all records of trial and related documents shall be transmitted and disposed of as prescribed by rule and provided by law.

Section 190. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

Any decision of a court-martial may be appealed to the South Dakota Supreme Court. The appellate procedures to be followed shall be those provided by law for the appeal of criminal cases.

Section 191. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

The senior force judge advocate shall detail a judge advocate as appellate government counsel to represent the state in the review or appeal of cases pursuant to section 190 of this Act and before any federal court when requested to do so by the state attorney general. Appellate government counsel shall be a member in good standing of the bar of the highest court of the state to which the appeal is taken.

Section 192. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

Upon an appeal by the state, an accused has the right to be represented by detailed military counsel before any reviewing authority and before any appellate court.

Section 193. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

Upon the appeal by an accused, the accused has the right to be represented by military counsel before any reviewing authority.

Section 194. That chapter 33-10 be amended by adding thereto a NEW SECTION to read as follows:

Upon the request of an accused entitled to be so represented, the senior force judge advocate shall appoint a judge advocate to represent the accused in the review or appeal of cases specified in sections 192 and 193 of this Act.
