

HOUSE COMMEMORATION NO. 1020

Introduced by: The Members of the 76th Legislative Session

A LEGISLATIVE COMMEMORATION, Honoring the students in the fourth grade class of Madison Central School for their creativity and enthusiasm in participating in State Government.

WHEREAS, we recognize and thank the fourth grade students of Madison Central School and their teachers, Kathy Satter and Marletta Eich, for their involvement with the State Legislature and their commitment to learning about the legislative process; and

WHEREAS, we as Legislators hope that the students are encouraged to take our place as legislators of the future, as well as serving in other government-related careers; and

WHEREAS, the poem "To Our Adopted Legislators," written by students Mike Berry, John Bloom, Amanda Dailing, Patrick Delzer, Marlana Flying Horse, Julian Freitag, Nathan Goodin, Dusty Honermann, David Kenyon, Chrissy LaHay, Aric Manthey, Jossie Nordberg, Jessica Olinger, Jonathon Olinger, Brandy Paugh, Justin Pederson, Brianna Postma, Joshua Rivera, Lindsay Rook, Ryan Steffensen, Jamie Sternhagen, Emily Terwilliger, Jeremy Waldner, Bianca Walker, Jacqueline Adams, Sean Campbell, Jonathan Christensen, Arielle Cole, Caitlin Fawbush, Kaitlin Habeger, Chase Hanson, Ben Haug, Jackie Howe, Jarret Janke, Ashley Johnson, Marli Jones, Darrell Kaiser, Skyler Leighton, Kassy Manning, Laura Niedert, Emily Olson, Mara Beth Riedel, Dylan Roberts, Justin Ross, Abby Steinert, Andy Williams, and Mathew Wollmann, is greatly appreciated, and will always be remembered by the 2001 Legislators. We are honored to be adopted by this class:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT COMMEMORATED, by the Seventy-sixth Legislature of the State of South Dakota, that the fourth grade class of Madison Central School is recognized as the 2001 South Dakota Fourth Grade Class of the Year.