For purposes of this paragraph, Canada, together with its provinces and territories, is a designated foreign jurisdiction and The Toronto Stock Exchange, Inc., is a designated securities exchange. After an administrative hearing in compliance with chapter 1-26, the director, by rule adopted or order issued under this Act, may revoke the designation of a securities exchange under this paragraph, if the director finds that revocation is necessary or appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors.

Section 8. Section 203. A rule adopted or order issued under this Act may exempt a security, transaction, or offer; a rule under this Act may exempt a class of securities, transactions, or offers from any or all of the requirements of Sections 301 through 306 and 504; and an order under this Act may waive, in whole or in part, any or all of the conditions for an exemption or offer under Sections 201 and 202. A filing required by rules adopted pursuant to this section shall include a fee of two hundred dollars, unless a fee is otherwise identified in this Act.

Section 9. Section 204. (a) Enforcement related powers. Section 10. Section 301. It is unlawful for a person to offer or sell a security in this state unless:

- (1) The security is a federal covered security;
- (2) The security, transaction, or offer is exempted from registration under Sections 201 through 203; or
- (3) The security is registered under this Act.

Section 11. Section 302. (a) Required filing of records. With respect to a federal covered security, as defined in Section 18(b)(2) of the Securities Act of 1933 (15 U.S.C. - (1) Before the initial offer of a federal covered security in this state, all records that are part of a federal registration statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Securities Act of 1933 and a consent to service of process complying with Section 611 signed by the issuer and the payment of a fee of five hundred dollars for open-end management companies with total net assets of fifty million dollars or less, or a filing fee of one thousand dollars for open-end management companies with total net assets of more than fifty million dollars but less than two hundred fifty million dollars, or a filing fee of two thousand dollars for open-end management companies with total net assets equal to or greater than two hundred fifty million dollars; two hundred and fifty dollars for closed end management companies; or a filing fee of one hundred fifty dollars for unit investment trusts. Any amendment that includes a name change to any filing, including any portfolio, series, class, or other designation, must include a fifty dollar filing fee for each name change of each portfolio, series, class, or other designation.

(b) Notice filing effectiveness and renewal. A notice filing under subsection (a) is effective for one year commencing on the later of the notice filing or the effectiveness of the offering filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. On or before expiration, the issuer may renew a notice filing by filing a copy of those records filed by the issuer with the Securities and Exchange Commission that are required by rule or order under this Act to be filed and by paying a renewal fee as set forth in subsection a(1). A previously filed consent to service of process complying with Section 611 may be incorporated by reference in a renewal. A renewed notice filing becomes effective upon the expiration of the filing being renewed.

(c) Notice filings for federal covered securities under Section 18(b)(4)(D). With respect to a security that is a federal covered security under Section 18(b)(4)(D) of the Securities Act of 1933 (15 U.S.C. Section 77r(b)(4)(D)), a rule under this Act may require a notice filing by or on behalf of an issuer to include a copy of Form D, including the Appendix, as promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission, and a consent to service of process complying with Section 611 signed by the issuer not later than fifteen days after the first sale of the federal covered security in this state and the payment of a fee of two hundred fifty dollars; and the payment of a fee of two hundred seventy five dollars for any late filing.

(d) Stop orders. Except with respect to a federal security under Section 18(b)(1) of the Securities Act of 1933 (15 U.S.C. Section 77r(b)(1)), if the director finds that there is a failure to comply with a notice or fee requirement of this section, the director may issue a stop order suspending the offer and sale of a federal covered security in this state. If the deficiency is corrected, the stop order is void as of the time of its issuance and no penalty may be imposed by the director.

Section 12. Section 303. (a) Registration permitted. A security for which a registration statement has been filed under the Securities Act of 1933 in connection with the same offering may be registered by coordination under this section.

(b) Required records. A registration statement and accompanying records under this section must contain or be accompanied by the following records in addition to the information specified in Section 305 and a consent to service of process complying with Section 611:

- (1) A stop order under subsection (d) or Section 306 or issued by the Securities and Exchange Commission is not in effect and a proceeding is not pending against the issuer under Section 306; and
- (2) The registration statement has been on file for at least twenty days or a shorter period provided by rule adopted or order issued under this Act.

(d) Notice of federal registration statement effectiveness. The registrant shall promptly notify the director in a record of the date when the federal registration statement becomes effective and the content of any price amendment and shall promptly file a record containing the price amendment. If the notice is not timely received, the director may issue a stop order, without prior notice or hearing, retroactively denying effectiveness to the registration statement or suspending its effectiveness until compliance with this section. The director shall promptly notify the registrant of an order by telegram, telephone, or electronic means and promptly confirm this notice by a record. If the registrant subsequently complies with the notice requirements of this section, the stop order is void as of the date of its issuance.

(e) Effectiveness of registration statement. If the federal registration statement becomes effective before each of the conditions in this section is satisfied or is waived by the director, the registration statement is automatically effective under this Act when all the conditions are satisfied or waived. If the registrant notifies the director of the date when the federal registration statement is expected to become effective, the director shall promptly notify the registrant by telegram, telephone, or electronic means and promptly confirm this notice by a record, indicating whether all the conditions are satisfied or waived and whether the director intends the institution of a proceeding under Section 306. The notice by the director does not preclude the institution of such a proceeding.

- (18) Any additional information or records required by rule adopted or order issued under this Act.

(c) Conditions for effectiveness of registration statement. A registration statement under this section becomes effective thirty days, or any shorter period provided by rule adopted or order issued under this Act, after the date the registration statement or the last amendment other than a price amendment is filed, if:

- (1) A stop order is not in effect and a proceeding is not pending under Section 306;
- (2) The director has not issued an order under Section 306 delaying effectiveness; and
- (3) The applicant or registrant has not requested that effectiveness be delayed.

(d) Delay of effectiveness of registration statement. The director may delay effectiveness once for not more than ninety days if the director determines the registration statement is not complete in all material respects and promptly notifies the applicant or registrant of that determination. The director may also delay effectiveness for a further period of not more than thirty days if the director determines that the delay is necessary or appropriate.

(e) Prospectus distribution may be required. A rule adopted or order issued under this Act may require as a condition of registration under this section that a prospectus containing a specified part of the information or record specified in subsection (b) be sent or given to each person to which an offer is made, before or concurrently, with the earliest of:

- (1) The first offer made in a record to the person otherwise than by means of a public advertisement, by or for the account of the issuer or another person on whose behalf the offering is being made or by an underwriter or broker-dealer that is offering part of an unsold allotment or subscription taken by the person as a participant in the distribution;

A person filing a registration statement shall pay a filing fee as follows: On the first five hundred thousand dollars of the total proposed sale price of the securities covered by such registration, the sum of one dollar per thousand dollars. All registrations over five hundred thousand dollars, the sum of five hundred dollars, plus seventy-five cents per thousand dollars of excess over five hundred thousand dollars. dollars.

(c) Status of offering. A registration statement filed under Section 303 or 304 must specify:

- (3) Any adverse order, judgment, or decree issued in connection with the offering by a state securities regulator, the Securities and Exchange Commission, or a court.

(d) Incorporation by reference. A record filed under this Act or the predecessor act within five years preceding the filing of a registration statement may be incorporated by reference in the registration statement to the extent that the record is currently accurate.

(e) Nonissuer distribution. In the case of a nonissuer distribution, information or a record may not be required under subsection (h) or Section 304, unless it is known to the person filing the registration statement or to the person on whose behalf the distribution is to be made or unless it can be furnished by those persons without unreasonable effort or expense.

(f) Form of subscription. A rule adopted or order issued under this Act may require as a condition of registration that a security registered under this Act be sold only on a specified form of subscription or sale contract and that a signed or conformed copy of each contract be filed under this Act or preserved for a period specified by the rule or order, which may not be longer than five years.

(g) Effective period. Except while a stop order is in effect under Section 306, a registration statement is effective for one year after its effective date, or for any longer period designated in an order under this Act during which the security is being offered or distributed in a nonexempted transaction by or for the account of the issuer or other person on whose behalf the offering is being made or by an underwriter or broker-dealer that is still offering part of an unsold allotment or subscription taken as a participant in the distribution. For the purposes of a nonissuer transaction, all outstanding securities of the same class identified in the registration statement as a security registered under this Act are considered to be registered while the registration statement is effective. If any securities of the same class are outstanding, a registration statement may not be withdrawn until one year after its effective date. A registration statement may be withdrawn only with the approval of the director. A fee of one hundred dollars is required for any extension of registration.

(h) Periodic reports. While a registration statement is effective, a rule adopted or order issued under this Act may require the person that filed the registration statement to file reports, not more often than quarterly, to keep the information or other record in the registration statement reasonably current and to disclose the progress of the offering. The only fee required for filing a report under this subsection (h) is for the annual report. The annual report fee is twenty-five dollars.

(i) Post-effective amendments. A registration statement may be amended after its effective date. The post-effective amendment becomes effective when the director so orders. If a post-effective amendment is made to increase the number of securities specified to be offered or sold, the person filing the amendment shall pay a late registration fee of twenty five dollars and a filing fee, calculated in the manner specified in subsection (b). A post-effective amendment relates back to the date of the offering of the additional securities being registered if, within one year after the date of the sale, the amendment is filed and the additional registration fee is paid.

Section 15. Section 306. (a) Stop orders. The director may issue a stop order denying effectiveness to, or suspending or revoking the effectiveness of, a registration statement if the director finds that the order is in the public interest and that:

- (1) The registration statement as of its effective date or before the effective date in the case of an order denying effectiveness, an amendment under Section 305(i) as of its effective date, or a report under Section 305(h), is incomplete in a material respect or contains a statement that, in the light of the circumstances under which it was made, was false or misleading with respect to a material fact;

- (2) This Act or a rule adopted or order issued under this Act or a condition imposed under this Act has been willfully violated, in connection with the offering, by the person filing the registration statement; by the issuer, a partner, officer, or director of the issuer or a person having a similar status or performing a similar function; a promoter of the issuer; or a person directly or indirectly controlling or controlled by the issuer; but only if the person filing the registration statement is directly or indirectly controlled by or acting for the issuer; or by an underwriter;
- (3) The security registered or sought to be registered is the subject of a permanent or temporary injunction of a court of competent jurisdiction or an administrative stop order or similar order issued under any federal, foreign, or state law other than this Act applicable to the offering, but the director may not institute a proceeding against an effective registration statement under this paragraph more than one year after the date of the order or injunction on which it is based, and the director may not issue an order under this paragraph on the basis of an order or injunction issued under the securities act of another state unless the order or injunction was based on conduct that would constitute, as of the date of the order, a ground for a stop order under this section;
- (4) The issuer's enterprise or method of business includes or would include activities that are unlawful where performed;
- (5) With respect to a security sought to be registered under Section 303, there has been a failure to comply with the undertaking required by Section 303(b)(4); or
- (6) The applicant or registrant has not paid the filing fee, but the director shall void the order if the deficiency is corrected.

(b) Institution of stop order. The director may not institute a stop order proceeding against an effective registration statement on the basis of conduct or a transaction known to the director when the registration statement became effective unless the proceeding is instituted within thirty days after the registration statement became effective.

(c) Summary process. The director may summarily revoke, deny, postpone, or suspend the effectiveness of a registration statement pending final determination of an administrative proceeding. Upon the issuance of the order, the director shall promptly notify each person specified in subsection (d) that the order has been issued, the reasons for the revocation, denial, postponement, or suspension, and that within fifteen days after the receipt of a request in a record from the person the matter will be scheduled for a hearing. If a hearing is not requested and none is ordered by the director, within thirty days after the date of service of the order, the order becomes final. If a hearing is requested or ordered, the director, after notice of and opportunity for hearing for each person subject to the order, may modify or vacate the order or extend the order until final determination.

(d) Procedural requirements for stop order. A stop order may not be issued under this section without:

- (1) Appropriate notice to the applicant or registrant, the issuer, and the person on whose behalf the securities are to be or have been offered;
- (2) An opportunity for hearing; and
- (3) Findings of fact and conclusions of law in a record in accordance with chapter 1-26.

(e) Modification or vacation of stop order. The director may modify or vacate a stop order issued under this section if the director finds that the conditions that caused its issuance have changed or that it is necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors.

Section 16. Section 307. The director may waive or modify, in whole or in part, any or all of the requirements of Sections 302, 303, and 304(b) or the requirement of any information or record in a registration statement or in a periodic report filed pursuant to Section 305(h).

Section 17. Section 401. (a) Registration requirement. It is unlawful for a person to transact business in this state as a broker-dealer unless the person is registered under this Act as a broker-dealer or is exempt from registration as a broker-dealer under subsection (b) or (d).

(b) Exemptions from registration. The following persons are exempt from the registration requirement of subsection (a):

(1) A broker-dealer without a place of business in this state if its only transactions effected in this state are with:

It is unlawful for a broker-dealer, or for an issuer engaged in offering, offering to purchase, purchasing, or selling securities in this state, directly or indirectly, to employ or associate with an individual to engage in an activity related to securities transactions in this state if the registration of the individual is suspended or revoked or the individual is barred from employment or association with a broker-dealer, an issuer, an investment adviser, or a federal covered investment adviser by an order of the director under this Act, the Securities and Exchange Commission, or a self-regulatory organization. A broker-dealer or issuer does not violate this subsection if the broker-dealer or issuer did not know and in the exercise of reasonable care could not have known, of the suspension, revocation, or bar. Upon request from a broker-dealer or issuer and for good cause, an order under this Act may modify or waive, in whole or in part, the application of the prohibitions of this subsection to the broker-dealer.

(d) Foreign transactions. A rule adopted or order issued under this Act may permit:

(d) Limit on employment or association. It is unlawful for a broker-dealer, or an issuer engaged in offering, selling, or purchasing securities in this state, to employ or associate with an agent who transacts business in this state on behalf of broker-dealers or issuers unless the agent is registered under subsection (a) or exempt from registration under subsection (b).

(b) Exemptions from registration. The following persons are exempt from the registration requirement of subsection (a):

- (1) A person without a place of business in this state that is registered under the securities act of the state in which the person has its principal place of business if its only clients in this state are:

(c) Limits on employment or association. It is unlawful for an investment adviser, directly or indirectly, to employ or associate with an individual to engage in an activity related to investment advice in this state if the registration of the individual is suspended or revoked or the individual is barred from employment or association with an investment adviser, federal covered investment adviser, or broker-dealer by an order under this Act, the Securities and Exchange Commission, or a self-regulatory organization, unless the investment adviser did not know, and in the exercise of reasonable care could not have known, of the suspension, revocation, or bar. Upon request from the investment adviser and for good cause, the director, by order, may waive, in whole or in part, the application of the prohibitions of this subsection to the investment adviser.

(d) Investment adviser representative registration required. It is unlawful for an investment adviser to employ or associate with an individual required to be registered under this Act as an investment adviser representative who transacts business in this state on behalf of the investment

(c) Registration effective only while employed or associated. The registration of an investment adviser representative is not effective while the investment adviser representative is not employed by or associated with an investment adviser registered under this Act or a federal covered investment adviser that has made or is required to make a notice filing under Section 405.

(d) Limit on affiliations. An individual may transact business as an investment adviser representative for more than one investment adviser or federal covered investment adviser unless a rule adopted or order issued under this Act prohibits or limits an individual from acting as an investment adviser representative for more than one investment adviser or federal covered investment adviser.

(e) Limits on employment or association. It is unlawful for an individual acting as an investment adviser representative, directly or indirectly, to conduct business in this state on behalf of an investment adviser or a federal covered investment adviser if the registration of the individual as an investment adviser representative is suspended or revoked or the individual is barred from employment or association with an investment adviser or a federal covered investment adviser by an order under this Act, the Securities and Exchange Commission, or a self-regulatory organization. Upon request from a federal covered investment adviser and for good cause, the director, by order issued, may waive, in whole or in part, the application of the requirements of this subsection to the federal covered investment adviser.

(f) Referral fees. An investment adviser registered under this Act, a federal covered investment adviser that has filed a notice under Section 405, or a broker-dealer registered under this Act is not required to employ or associate with an individual as an investment adviser representative if the only compensation paid to the individual for a referral of investment advisory clients is paid to an investment adviser registered under this Act, a federal covered investment adviser who has filed a notice under Section 405, or a broker-dealer registered under this Act with which the individual is employed or associated as an investment adviser representative.

Section 21. Section 405. (a) Notice filing requirement. Except with respect to a federal covered investment adviser described in subsection (b), it is unlawful for a federal covered investment adviser to transact business in this state as a federal covered investment adviser unless the federal covered investment adviser complies with subsection (c).

(b) Notice filing requirement not required. The following federal covered investment advisers are not required to comply with subsection (c):

  - (3) Any other person excluded by rule adopted or order issued under this Act.

(c) Notice filing procedure. A person acting as a federal covered investment adviser, not excluded under subsection (b), shall file a notice, a consent to service of process complying with Section 611, and such records as have been filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 required by rule adopted or order issued under this Act and pay the fees specified in Section 410(e).

(d) Effectiveness of filing. The notice under subsection (c) becomes effective upon its filing.

Section 22. Section 406. (a) Application for initial registration. A person shall register as a broker-dealer, agent, investment adviser, or investment adviser representative by filing an application and a consent to service of process complying with Section 611, and paying the fee specified in Section 410 and any reasonable fees charged by the designee of the director for processing the filing.

The application must contain:

- (1) The information or record required for the filing of a uniform application; and
- (2) Upon request by the director, any other financial or other information or record that the director determines is appropriate.

(b) Amendment. If the information or record contained in an application filed under subsection (a) is or becomes inaccurate or incomplete in a material respect, the registrant shall promptly file a correcting amendment.

(c) Effectiveness of registration. If an order is not in effect and a proceeding is not pending under Section 412, registration becomes effective at noon on the forty-fifth day after a completed application is filed, unless the registration is denied. A rule adopted or order issued under this Act may set an earlier effective date or may defer the effective date until noon on the forty-fifth day after the filing of any amendment completing the application.

(d) Registration renewal. A registration is effective until midnight on December thirty-first of the year for which the application for registration is filed. Unless an order is in effect under Section 412, a registration may be automatically renewed each year by filing such records as are required by rule adopted or order issued under this Act, by paying the fee specified in Section 410, and by paying costs charged by the designee of the director for processing the filings.

(e) Additional conditions or waivers. A rule adopted or order issued under this Act may impose such other conditions, not inconsistent with the National Securities Markets Improvement Act of 1996. An order issued under this Act may waive, in whole or in part, specific requirements in connection with registration as are in the public interest and for the protection of investors.

Section 23. Section 407. (a) Succession. A broker-dealer or investment adviser may succeed to the current registration of another broker-dealer or investment adviser or a notice filing of a federal covered investment adviser, and a federal covered investment adviser may succeed to the current registration of an investment adviser or notice filing of another federal covered investment adviser, by filing as a successor an application for registration pursuant to Section 401 or 403 or a notice pursuant to Section 405 for the unexpired portion of the current registration or notice filing.

(b) Organizational change. A broker-dealer or investment adviser that changes its form of organization or state of incorporation or organization may continue its registration by filing an amendment to its registration if the change does not involve a material change in its financial condition or management. The amendment becomes effective when filed or on a date designated by the registrant in its filing. The new organization is a successor to the original registrant for the purposes of this Act. If there is a material change in financial condition or management, the broker-dealer or investment adviser shall file a new application for registration. A predecessor registered under this Act shall stop conducting its securities business other than winding down transactions and shall file for withdrawal of broker-dealer or investment adviser registration within forty-five days after filing its amendment to effect succession.

(c) Name change. A broker-dealer or investment adviser that changes its name may continue its registration by filing an amendment to its registration. The amendment becomes effective when filed or on a date designated by the registrant.

(d) Change of control. A change of control of a broker-dealer or investment adviser may be made in accordance with a rule adopted or order issued under this Act.

Section 24. Section 408. (a) Notice of termination. If an agent registered under this Act terminates employment by or association with a broker-dealer or issuer, or if an investment adviser representative registered under this Act terminates employment by or association with an investment adviser or federal covered investment adviser, or if either registrant terminates activities that require registration as an agent or investment adviser representative, the broker-dealer, issuer, investment adviser, or federal covered investment adviser shall promptly file a notice of termination. If the registrant learns that the broker-dealer, issuer, investment adviser, or federal covered investment adviser has not filed the notice, the registrant may do so.

(b) Transfer of employment or association. If an agent registered under this Act terminates employment by or association with a broker-dealer registered under this Act and begins employment by or association with another broker-dealer registered under this Act; or if an investment adviser representative registered under this Act terminates employment by or association with an investment adviser registered under this Act or a federal covered investment adviser that has filed a notice under Section 405 and begins employment by or association with another investment adviser registered under this Act or a federal covered investment adviser that has filed a notice under Section 405; then upon the filing by or on behalf of the registrant, within thirty days after the termination, of an application for registration that complies with the requirement of Section 406(a) and payment of the filing fee required under Section 410, the registration of the agent or investment adviser representative is:

- (1) Immediately effective as of the date of the completed filing, if the agent's Central Registration Depository record or successor record or the investment adviser representative's Investment Adviser Registration Depository record or successor record does not contain a new or amended disciplinary disclosure within the previous twelve months; or
- (2) Temporarily effective as of the date of the completed filing, if the agent's Central Registration Depository record or successor record or the investment adviser representative's Investment Adviser Registration Depository record or successor record contains a new or amended disciplinary disclosure within the preceding twelve months.

(c) Withdrawal of temporary registration. The director may withdraw a temporary registration if there are or were grounds for discipline as specified in Section 412 and the director does so within thirty days after the filing of the application. If the director does not withdraw the temporary registration within the thirty-day period, registration becomes automatically effective on the thirty-first day after filing.

(d) Power to prevent registration. The director may prevent the effectiveness of a transfer of an agent or investment adviser representative under subsection (b)(1) or (2) based on the public interest and the protection of investors.

(e) Termination of registration or application for registration. If the director determines that a registrant or applicant for registration is no longer in existence or has ceased to act as a broker-dealer, agent, investment adviser, or investment adviser representative, or is the subject of an adjudication of incapacity or is subject to the control of a committee, conservator, or guardian, or cannot reasonably be located, a rule adopted or order issued under this Act may require the registration be canceled or terminated or the application denied. The director may reinstate a canceled or terminated registration, with or without hearing, and may make the registration retroactive.

Section 25. Section 409. Withdrawal of registration by a broker-dealer, agent, investment adviser, or investment adviser representative becomes effective sixty days after the filing of the application to withdraw or within any shorter period as provided by rule adopted or order issued under this Act unless a revocation or suspension proceeding is pending when the application is filed. If a proceeding is pending, withdrawal becomes effective when and upon such conditions as required by rule adopted or order issued under this Act. The director may institute a revocation or suspension proceeding under Section 412 within one year after the withdrawal became effective automatically and issue a revocation or suspension order as of the last date on which registration was effective if a proceeding is not pending.

Section 26. Section 410. (a) Broker-dealers. A person shall pay a fee of one hundred fifty dollars when initially filing an application for registration as a broker-dealer and a fee of one hundred fifty dollars when filing a renewal of registration as a broker-dealer. If the filing results in a denial or withdrawal, the director shall retain the fee.

(b) Agents. The fee for an individual is one hundred twenty five dollars when filing an application for registration as an agent, a fee of one hundred twenty five dollars when filing a renewal of registration as an agent, and a fee of one hundred twenty five dollars when filing for a change of registration as an agent. If the filing results in a denial or withdrawal, the director shall retain the fee.

(c) Investment advisers. A person shall pay a fee of one hundred dollars when filing an application for registration as an investment adviser and a fee of one hundred dollars when filing a renewal of registration as an investment adviser. If the filing results in a denial or withdrawal, the director shall retain the fee.

(d) Investment adviser representatives. The fee for an individual is fifty dollars when filing an application for registration as an investment adviser representative, a fee of fifty dollars when filing a renewal of registration as an investment adviser representative, and a fee of fifty dollars when filing a change of registration as an investment adviser representative. If the filing results in a denial or withdrawal, the director shall retain the fee.

(e) Federal covered investment advisers. A federal covered investment adviser required to file a notice under Section 405 shall pay an initial fee of two hundred dollars and an annual notice fee of two hundred dollars.

(f) Payment. A person required to pay a filing or notice fee under this section may transmit the fee through or to a designee as a rule or order provides under this Act.

Section 27. Section 411. (a) Financial requirements. Subject to Section 15(h) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (15 U.S.C. Section 78o(h) ) or Section 222 of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 (15 U.S.C. Section 80b-22), a rule adopted or order issued under this Act may establish minimum financial requirements for broker-dealers registered or required to be registered under this Act and investment advisers registered or required to be registered under this Act.

(b) Financial reports. Subject to Section 15(h) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (15 U.S.C. Section 78o(h)) or Section 222(b) of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 (15 U.S.C. Section 80b-22), a broker-dealer registered or required to be registered under this Act and an investment adviser registered or required to be registered under this Act shall file such financial reports as are required by a rule adopted or order issued under this Act. If the information contained in a record filed under this subsection is or becomes inaccurate or incomplete in a material respect, the registrant shall promptly file a correcting amendment.

(c) Record keeping. Subject to Section 15(h) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (15 U.S.C. Section 78o(h)) or Section 222 of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 (15 U.S.C. Section 80b-22):

- (1) A broker-dealer registered or required to be registered under this Act and an investment adviser registered or required to be registered under this Act shall make and maintain the accounts, correspondence, memoranda, papers, books, and other records required by rule adopted or order issued under this Act;
- (2) Broker-dealer records required to be maintained under paragraph (1) may be maintained in any form of data storage acceptable under Section 17(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (15 U.S.C. Section 78q(a)) if they are readily accessible to the director; and
- (3) Investment adviser records required to be maintained under paragraph (1) may be maintained in any form of data storage required by rule adopted or order issued under this Act.

(d) Audits or inspections. The records of a broker-dealer registered or required to be registered under this Act and of an investment adviser registered or required to be registered under this Act are subject to such reasonable periodic, special, or other audits or inspections by a representative of the director, within or without this state, as the director considers necessary or appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors. An audit or inspection may be made at any time and without prior notice. The director may copy, and remove for audit or inspection copies of, all records the director reasonably considers necessary or appropriate to conduct the audit or inspection. The director may assess a reasonable charge for conducting an audit or inspection under this subsection.

(e) Custody and discretionary authority bond or insurance. Subject to Section 15(h) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (15 U.S.C. Section 78o(h)) or Section 222 of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 (15 U.S.C. Section 80b-22), a rule adopted or order issued under this Act may require a broker-dealer or investment adviser that has custody of or discretionary authority over funds or securities of a customer or client to obtain insurance or post a bond or other satisfactory form of security in an amount not to exceed fifty thousand dollars. The director may determine the requirements of the insurance, bond, or other satisfactory form of security. Insurance or a bond or other satisfactory form of security may not be required of a broker-dealer registered under this Act whose net capital exceeds, or of an investment adviser registered under this Act whose minimum financial requirements exceed, the amounts required by rule or order under this Act. The insurance, bond, or other satisfactory form of security must permit an action by a person to enforce any liability on the insurance, bond, or other satisfactory form of security if instituted within the time limitations in Section 509(j)(2).

(f) Requirements for custody. Subject to Section 15(h) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (15 U.S.C. Section 78o(h)) or Section 222 of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 (15 U.S.C. Section 80b-22), an agent may not have custody of funds or securities of a customer except under the supervision of a broker-dealer and an investment adviser representative may not have custody of funds or securities of a client except under the supervision of an investment adviser or a federal covered investment adviser. A rule adopted or order issued under this Act may prohibit, limit, or impose conditions on a broker-dealer regarding custody of funds or securities of a customer and on an investment adviser regarding custody of securities or funds of a client.

(g) Investment adviser brochure rule. With respect to an investment adviser registered or required to be registered under this Act, a rule adopted or order issued under this Act may require that information or other record be furnished or disseminated to clients or prospective clients in this state as necessary or appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors and advisory clients.

(h) Continuing education. A rule adopted or order issued under this Act may require an individual registered under Section 402 or 404 to participate in a continuing education program approved by the Securities and Exchange Commission and administered by a self-regulatory organization or, in the absence of such a program, a rule adopted or order issued under this Act may require continuing education for an individual registered under Section 404.

Section 28. Section 412. (a) Disciplinary conditions-applicants. If the director finds that the order is in the public interest and subsection (d) authorizes the action, an order issued under this Act may deny an application, or may condition or limit registration of an applicant to be a broker-dealer, agent, investment adviser, or investment adviser representative, and, if the applicant is a broker-dealer or investment adviser, of a partner, officer, director, or person having a similar status or performing similar functions, or a person directly or indirectly in control, of the broker-dealer or investment adviser.

(b) Disciplinary conditions – registrants. However, the director may not:

- (2) Under subsection (d)(5)(A) or (B), issue an order on the basis of an order issued under the securities act of another state unless the other order was based on conduct for which subsection (d) would authorize the action had the conduct occurred in this state.

(c) Disciplinary penalties – registrants. If the director finds that the order is in the public interest and subsection (d)(1) through (6), (8), (9), (10), or (12) and (13) authorizes the action, an order under this Act may censure, impose a bar, or impose a civil penalty in an amount not to exceed a maximum of ten thousand dollars per violation, on a registrant, and, if the registrant is a broker-dealer or investment adviser, a partner, officer, director, or person having a similar status or performing similar functions, or a person directly or indirectly in control, of the broker-dealer or investment adviser.

(d) Grounds for discipline. A person may be disciplined under subsections (a) through (c) if the person:

  - (C) To have been suspended or expelled from membership by or participation in a securities exchange or securities association operating under the securities laws of a foreign jurisdiction;
- (12) Is the subject of a cease and desist order issued by the Securities and Exchange Commission or issued under the securities, commodities, investment, franchise, banking, finance, or insurance laws of a state;
- (13) Has engaged in dishonest or unethical practices in the securities, commodities, investment, franchise, banking, finance, or insurance business within the previous ten years; or
- (14) Is not qualified on the basis of factors such as training, experience, and knowledge of the securities business. However, in the case of an application by an agent for a broker-dealer that is a member of a self-regulatory organization or by an individual for registration as an investment adviser representative, a denial order may not be based on this paragraph if the individual has successfully completed all examinations required by subsection (e). The director may require an applicant for registration under Section 402 or 404 who has not been registered in a state within the two years preceding the filing of an application in this state to successfully complete an examination.

(e) Examinations. A rule adopted or order issued under this Act may require that an examination, including an examination developed or approved by an organization of securities regulators, be successfully completed by a class of individuals or all individuals. An order issued under this Act may waive, in whole or in part, an examination as to an individual and a rule adopted under this Act may waive, in whole or in part, an examination as to a class of individuals if the director determines that the examination is not necessary or appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors.

(f) Summary process. The director may suspend or deny an application summarily; restrict, condition, limit, or suspend a registration; or censure, bar, or impose a civil penalty on a registrant before final determination of an administrative proceeding. Upon the issuance of an order, the director shall promptly notify each person subject to the order that the order has been issued, the reasons for the action, and that within fifteen days after the receipt of a request in a record from the person the matter will be scheduled for a hearing. If a hearing is not requested and none is ordered by the director within thirty days after the date of service of the order, the order becomes final by operation of law. If a hearing is requested or ordered, the director, after notice of and opportunity for hearing to each person subject to the order, may modify or vacate the order or extend the order until final determination.

(g) Procedural requirements. An order issued may not be issued under this section, except under subsection (f), without:

- (1) Appropriate notice to the applicant or registrant;
- (2) Opportunity for hearing; and
- (3) Findings of fact and conclusions of law in a record in accordance with chapter 1-26.

(h) Control person liability. A person that controls, directly or indirectly, a person not in compliance with this section may be disciplined by order of the director under subsections (a) through (c) to the same extent as the noncomplying person, unless the controlling person did not know, and in the exercise of reasonable care could not have known, of the existence of conduct that is a ground for discipline under this section.

(i) Limit on investigation or proceeding. The director may not institute a proceeding under subsection(a), (b), or (c) based solely on material facts actually known by the director unless an investigation or the proceeding is instituted within one year after the director actually acquires knowledge of the material facts.

Section 29. Section 501. It is unlawful for a person, in connection with the offer, sale, or purchase of a security, directly or indirectly:

- (1) To employ a device, scheme, or artifice to defraud;
- (2) To make an untrue statement of a material fact or to omit to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements made, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading; or
- (3) To engage in an act, practice, or course of business that operates or would operate as a fraud or deceit upon another person.

Section 30. Section 502. (a) Fraud in providing investment advice. It is unlawful for a person that advises others for compensation, either directly or indirectly or through publications or writings, as to the value of securities or the advisability of investing in, purchasing, or selling securities or that, for compensation and as part of a regular business, issues or promulgates analyses or reports relating to securities:

- (1) To employ a device, scheme, or artifice to defraud another person; or
- (2) To engage in an act, practice, or course of business that operates or would operate as a fraud or deceit upon another person.

(b) Rules defining fraud. A rule adopted under this Act may define an act, practice, or course of business of an investment adviser or an investment adviser representative, other than a supervised person of a federal covered investment adviser, as fraudulent, deceptive, or manipulative, and prescribe means reasonably designed to prevent investment advisers and investment adviser representatives, other than supervised persons of a federal covered investment adviser, from engaging in acts, practices, and courses of business defined as fraudulent, deceptive, or manipulative.

(c) Rules specifying contents of advisory contract. A rule adopted under this Act may specify the contents of an investment advisory contract entered into, extended, or renewed by an investment adviser.

Section 31. Section 503. (a) Civil. In a civil action or administrative proceeding under this Act, a person claiming an exemption, exception, preemption, or exclusion has the burden to prove the applicability of the claim.

(b) Criminal. In a criminal proceeding under this Act, a person claiming an exemption, exception, preemption, or exclusion has the burden of going forward with evidence of the claim.

Section 32. Section 504. (a) Filing requirement. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (b), a rule adopted or order issued under this Act may require the filing of a prospectus, pamphlet, circular, form letter, advertisement, sales literature, or other advertising record relating to a security or investment advice, addressed or intended for distribution to prospective investors, including clients or prospective clients of a person registered or required to be registered as an investment adviser under this Act.

(b) Excluded communications. This section does not apply to sales and advertising literature specified in subsection (a) which relates to a federal covered security, a federal covered investment adviser, or a security or transaction exempted by Section 201, 202, or 203 except as required pursuant to Section 201(7).

Section 33. Section 505. It is unlawful for a person to make or cause to be made, in a record that is used in an action or proceeding or filed under this Act, a statement that, at the time and in the light of the circumstances under which it is made, is false or misleading in a material respect, or, in connection with the statement, to omit to state a material fact necessary to make the statement made, in the light of the circumstances under which it was made, not false or misleading.

Section 34. Section 506. The filing of an application for registration, a registration statement, a notice filing under this Act, the registration of a person, the notice filing by a person, or the registration of a security under this Act does not constitute a finding by the director that a record filed under this Act is true, complete, and not misleading. The filing or registration or the availability of an exemption, exception, preemption, or exclusion for a security or a transaction does not mean that the director has passed upon the merits or qualifications of, or recommended or given approval to, a person, security, or transaction. It is unlawful to make, or cause to be made, to a purchaser, customer, client, or prospective customer or client a representation inconsistent with this section.

Section 35. Section 507. A broker-dealer, agent, investment adviser, federal covered investment adviser, or investment adviser representative is not liable to another broker-dealer, agent, investment adviser, federal covered investment adviser, or investment adviser representative for defamation relating to a statement that is contained in a record required by the director, or designee of the director, the Securities and Exchange Commission, or a self-regulatory organization, unless the person knew, or should have known at the time that the statement was made, that it was false in a material respect or the person acted in reckless disregard of the statement's truth or falsity.

Section 36. Section 508. (a) Criminal penalties. It is a class four felony for any person that willfully violates this Act, or a rule adopted or order issued under this Act, except Section 504 or the notice filing requirements of Section 302 or 405, or that willfully violates Section 505 knowing the statement made to be false or misleading in a material respect, upon conviction, shall be fined not more than ten thousand dollars per violation. An individual convicted of violating a rule or order under this Act may be fined, but may not be imprisoned, if the individual did not have knowledge of the rule or order. A subsequent violation is a Class 3 felony.

(b) Criminal reference not required. The Attorney General or the proper prosecuting attorney with or without a reference from the director, may institute criminal proceedings under this Act.

(c) No limitation on other criminal enforcement. This Act does not limit the power of this state to punish a person for conduct that constitutes a crime under other laws of this state.

Section 37. Section 509. (a) Securities Litigation Uniform Standards Act. Enforcement of civil liability under this section is subject to the Securities Litigation Uniform Standards Act of 1998.

(b) Liability of seller to purchaser. A person is liable to the purchaser if the person sells a security in violation of Section 301 or, by means of an untrue statement of a material fact or an omission to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statement made, in light of the circumstances under which it is made, not misleading, the purchaser not knowing the untruth or omission and the seller not sustaining the burden of proof that the seller did not know and, in the exercise of reasonable care, could not have known of the untruth or omission. An action under this subsection is governed by the following:

- (1) The purchaser may maintain an action to recover the consideration paid for the security, less the amount of any income received on the security, and interest at Category D, § 54-3-16 from the date of the purchase, costs, and reasonable attorneys' fees determined by the court, upon the tender of the security, or for actual damages as provided in paragraph (3).
- (2) The tender referred to in paragraph (1) may be made any time before entry of judgment. Tender requires only notice in a record of ownership of the security and willingness to exchange the security for the amount specified. A purchaser that no longer owns the security may recover actual damages as provided in paragraph (3).
- (3) Actual damages in an action arising under this subsection are the amount that would be recoverable upon a tender less the value of the security when the purchaser disposed of it, and interest at Category D § 54-3-16 from the date of the purchase, costs, and reasonable attorneys' fees determined by the court.

(c) Liability of purchaser to seller. A person is liable to the seller if the person buys a security by means of an untrue statement of a material fact or omission to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statement made, in light of the circumstances under which it is made, not misleading, the seller not knowing of the untruth or omission, and the purchaser not sustaining the burden of proof that the purchaser did not know, and in the exercise of reasonable care, could not have known of the untruth or omission. An action under this subsection is governed by the following:

- (1) The seller may maintain an action to recover the security, and any income received on the security, costs, and reasonable attorneys' fees determined by the court, upon the tender of the purchase price, or for actual damages as provided in paragraph (3).
- (2) The tender referred to in paragraph (1) may be made any time before entry of judgment. Tender requires only notice in a record of the present ability to pay the amount tendered and willingness to take delivery of the security for the amount specified. If the purchaser no longer owns the security, the seller may recover actual damages as provided in paragraph (3).
- (3) Actual damages in an action arising under this subsection are the difference between the price at which the security was sold and the value the security would have had at the time of the sale in the absence of the purchaser's conduct causing liability, and interest at Category D § 54-3-16 from the date of the sale of the security, costs, and reasonable attorneys' fees determined by the court.

(d) Liability of unregistered broker-dealer and agent. A person acting as a broker-dealer or agent that sells or buys a security in violation of Section 401(a), 402(a), or 506 is liable to the customer. The customer, if a purchaser, may maintain an action for recovery of actual damages as specified in subsections (b)(1) through (3), or, if a seller, for a remedy as specified in subsections (c)(1) through (3).

(e) Liability of unregistered investment adviser and investment adviser representative. A person acting as an investment adviser or investment adviser representative that provides investment advice for compensation in violation of Section 403(a), 404(a), or 506 is liable to the client. The client may maintain an action to recover the consideration paid for the advice, interest at Category D § 54-3-16 from the date of payment, costs, and reasonable attorneys' fees determined by the court.

(f) Liability for investment advice. A person that receives directly or indirectly any consideration for providing investment advice to another person and that employs a device, scheme, or artifice to defraud the other person or engages in an act, practice, or course of business that operates or would operate as a fraud or deceit on the other person, is liable to the other person. An action under this subsection is governed by the following:

- (1) The person defrauded may maintain an action to recover the consideration paid for the advice and the amount of any actual damages caused by the fraudulent conduct, interest at Category D § 54-3-16 from the date of the fraudulent conduct, costs, and reasonable attorneys' fees determined by the court, less the amount of any income received as a result of the fraudulent conduct.
- (2) This subsection does not apply to a broker-dealer or its agents if the investment advice provided is solely incidental to transacting business as a broker-dealer and no special compensation is received for the investment advice.

(g) Joint and several liability. The following persons are liable jointly and severally with and to the same extent as persons liable under subsections (b) through (f):

- (1) A person that directly or indirectly controls a person liable under subsections (b) through (f), unless the controlling person sustains the burden of proof that the person did not know, and in the exercise of reasonable care could not have known, of the existence of conduct by reason of which the liability is alleged to exist;

- (2) An individual who is a managing partner, executive officer, or director of a person liable under subsections (b) through (f), including an individual having a similar status or performing similar functions, unless the individual sustains the burden of proof that the individual did not know and, in the exercise of reasonable care could not have known, of the existence of conduct by reason of which the liability is alleged to exist;
- (3) An individual who is an employee of or associated with a person liable under subsections (b) through (f) and who materially aids the conduct giving rise to the liability, unless the individual sustains the burden of proof that the individual did not know and, in the exercise of reasonable care could not have known, of the existence of conduct by reason of which the liability is alleged to exist; and
- (4) A person that is a broker-dealer, agent, investment adviser, or investment adviser representative that materially aids the conduct giving rise to the liability under subsections (b) through (f), unless the person sustains the burden of proof that the person did not know and, in the exercise of reasonable care could not have known, of the existence of conduct by reason of which liability is alleged to exist.

(h) Right of contribution. A person liable under this section has a right of contribution as in cases of contract against any other person liable under this section for the same conduct.

(i) Survival of cause of action. A cause of action under this section survives the death of an individual who might have been a plaintiff or defendant.

(j) Statute of limitations. A person may not obtain relief:

- (1) Under subsection (b) for violation of Section 301, or under subsection (d) or (e), unless the action is instituted within one year after the violation occurred; or
- (2) Under subsection (b), other than for violation of Section 301, or under subsection (c) or (f), unless the action is instituted within the earlier of two years after discovery of the facts constituting the violation or five years after the violation.

(k) No enforcement of violative contract. A person that has made, or has engaged in the performance of, a contract in violation of this Act or a rule adopted or order issued under this Act, or that has acquired a purported right under the contract with knowledge of conduct by reason of which its making or performance was in violation of this Act, may not base an action on the contract.

(l) No contractual waiver. A condition, stipulation, or provision binding a person purchasing or selling a security or receiving investment advice to waive compliance with this Act or a rule adopted or order issued under this Act is void.

(m) Survival of other rights or remedies. The rights and remedies provided by this Act are in addition to any other rights or remedies that may exist, but this Act does not create a cause of action not specified in this section or Section 411(e).

Section 38. Section 510. A purchaser, seller, or recipient of investment advice may not maintain an action under Section 509 if:

- (1) The purchaser, seller, or recipient of investment advice receives in a record, before the action is instituted:
  - (A) An offer stating the respect in which liability under Section 509 may have arisen and fairly advising the purchaser, seller, or recipient of investment advice of that person's rights in connection with the offer, and any financial or other information necessary to correct all material misrepresentations or omissions in the information that was required by this Act to be furnished to that person at the time of the purchase, sale, or investment advice;
  - (B) If the basis for relief under this section may have been a violation of Section 509(b), an offer to repurchase the security for cash, payable on delivery of the security, equal to the consideration paid, and interest at Category D § 54-3-16 from the date of the purchase, less the amount of any income received on the security, or, if the purchaser no longer owns the security, an offer to pay the purchaser upon acceptance of the offer damages in an amount that would be recoverable upon a tender, less the value of the security when the purchaser disposed of it, and interest at Category D § 54-3-16 from the date of the purchase in cash equal to the damages computed in the manner provided in this subsection;

- (C) If the basis for relief under this section may have been a violation of Section 509(c), an offer to tender the security, on payment by the seller of an amount equal to the purchase price paid, less income received on the security by the purchaser and interest at Category D § 54-3-16 from the date of the sale; or if the purchaser no longer owns the security, an offer to pay the seller upon acceptance of the offer, in cash, damages in the amount of the difference between the price at which the security was purchased and the value the security would have had at the time of the purchase in the absence of the purchaser's conduct that may have caused liability and interest at Category D § 54-3-16 from the date of the sale;
- (D) If the basis for relief under this section may have been a violation of Section 509(d); and if the customer is a purchaser, an offer to pay as specified in subparagraph (B); or, if the customer is a seller, an offer to tender or to pay as specified in subparagraph (C);
- (E) If the basis for relief under this section may have been a violation of Section 509(e), an offer to reimburse in cash the consideration paid for the advice and interest at Category D § 54-3-16 from the date of payment; or
- (F) If the basis for relief under this section may have been a violation of Section 509(f), an offer to reimburse in cash the consideration paid for the advice, the amount of any actual damages that may have been caused by the conduct, and interest at Category D § 54-3-16 from the date of the violation causing the loss;

- (2) The offer under paragraph (1) states that it must be accepted by the purchaser, seller, or recipient of investment advice within thirty days after the date of its receipt by the purchaser, seller, or recipient of investment advice or any shorter period, of not less than three days, that the director, by order, specifies;
- (3) The offeror has the present ability to pay the amount offered or to tender the security under paragraph (1);
- (4) The offer under paragraph (1) is delivered to the purchaser, seller, or recipient of investment advice, or sent in a manner that ensures receipt by the purchaser, seller, or recipient of investment advice; and
- (5) The purchaser, seller, or recipient of investment advice that accepts the offer under paragraph (1) in a record within the period specified under paragraph (2) is paid in accordance with the terms of the offer.

Section 39. Section 601. (a) Administration. This Act shall be administered by the director.

(b) The director shall designate one of his employees to administer the provisions of this Act in the event of his absence or disability.

(c) This Act shall be administered under the direction and supervision of the Department of Revenue and Regulation and the secretary thereof, but shall retain the quasi-judicial, quasi-legislative, advisory, and other nonadministrative functions, as defined in § 1-32-1, otherwise vested in it and shall exercise those functions independently of the secretary of the Department of Revenue and Regulation.

(d) The director shall be appointed by the secretary of the Department of Revenue and Regulation and may be removed at the pleasure of the secretary. The appointment and removal of the director shall be subject to approval by the Governor.

(e) The director shall receive travel expenses, in accordance with the rules of the Board of Finance, incurred in the discharge of official duties.

(f) The director shall employ, from time to time, such clerks and employees as are necessary for the administration of this chapter, and they shall perform such duties as the director shall assign.

(g) The director may be included in the state's employees' blanket bond pursuant to § 3-5-5.1.

(h) The director shall use the seal with the words, Director of Securities, South Dakota, and such designs as the director shall prescribe engraved thereon by which seal the director shall authenticate his signature and proceedings.

(i) Unlawful use of records or information. It is unlawful for the director or an officer, employee, or designee of the director to use for personal benefit or the benefit of others records or other information obtained by or filed with the director that are not public under Section 607(b). This Act does not authorize the director or an officer, employee, or designee of the director to disclose the record or information, except in accordance with Section 602, 607(c), or 608.

(j) No privilege or exemption created or diminished. This Act does not create or diminish a privilege or exemption that exists at common law, by statute or rule, or otherwise.

(k) Investor education. The director may develop and implement investor education initiatives to inform the public about investing in securities, with particular emphasis on the prevention and detection of securities fraud. In developing and implementing these initiatives, the director may collaborate with public and nonprofit organizations with an interest in investor education. The director may accept a grant or donation from a person that is not affiliated with the securities industry or from a nonprofit organization, regardless of whether the organization is affiliated with the securities industry, to develop and implement investor education initiatives. This subsection does not authorize the director to require participation or monetary contributions of a registrant in an investor education program.

Section 40. Section 602. (a) Authority to investigate. The director may:

- (1) Conduct public or private investigations within or outside of this state which the director considers necessary or appropriate to determine whether a person has violated, is violating, or is about to violate this Act or a rule adopted or order issued under this Act, or to aid in the enforcement of this Act or in the adoption of rules and forms under this Act;
- (2) Require or permit a person to testify, file a statement, or produce a record, under oath or otherwise as the director determines, as to all the facts and circumstances concerning a matter to be investigated or about which an action or proceeding is to be instituted; and
- (3) Publish a record concerning an action, proceeding, or an investigation under, or a violation of, this Act or a rule adopted or order issued under this Act if the director determines it is necessary or appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors.

(b) Director powers to investigate. For the purpose of an investigation under this Act, the director or its designated officer may administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, seek compulsion of attendance, take evidence, require the filing of statements, and require the production of any records that the director considers relevant or material to the investigation.

(c) Procedure and remedies for noncompliance. If a person does not appear or refuses to testify, file a statement, produce records, or otherwise does not obey a subpoena as required by the director under this Act, the director, or any officer designated by him, may apply to the circuit court to enforce compliance, or may refer the matter to the Attorney General or the proper attorney, who may apply to the circuit court or a court of another state to enforce compliance. The court may:

- (1) Hold the person in contempt;

- (2) Order the person to appear before the director;
- (3) Order the person to testify about the matter under investigation or in question;
- (4) Order the production of records;
- (5) Grant injunctive relief, including restricting or prohibiting the offer or sale of securities or the providing of investment advice;
- (6) Impose a civil penalty of not more than ten thousand dollars per violation; and
- (7) Grant any other necessary or appropriate relief.

(d) Application for relief. This section does not preclude a person from applying to the circuit court or a court of another state for relief from a request to appear, testify, file a statement, produce records, or obey a subpoena.

(e) Use immunity procedure. An individual is not excused from attending, testifying, filing a statement, producing a record or other evidence, or obeying a subpoena of the director under this Act or in an action or proceeding instituted by the director under this Act on the ground that the required testimony, statement, record, or other evidence, directly or indirectly, may tend to incriminate the individual or subject the individual to a criminal fine, penalty, or forfeiture. If the individual refuses to testify, file a statement, or produce a record or other evidence on the basis of the individual's privilege against self-incrimination, the director may apply to the circuit court to compel the testimony, the filing of the statement, the production of the record, or the giving of other evidence. The testimony, record, or other evidence compelled under such an order may not be used, directly or indirectly, against the individual in a criminal case, except in a prosecution for perjury or contempt or otherwise failing to comply with the order.

(f) Assistance to securities regulator of another jurisdiction. At the request of the securities regulator of another state or a foreign jurisdiction, the director may provide assistance if the requesting regulator states that it is conducting an investigation to determine whether a person has violated, is violating, or is about to violate a law or rule of the other state or foreign jurisdiction relating to securities matters that the requesting regulator administers or enforces. The director may provide the assistance by using the authority to investigate and the powers conferred by this section as the director determines is necessary or appropriate. The assistance may be provided without regard to whether the conduct described in the request would also constitute a violation of this Act or other law of this state if occurring in this state. In deciding whether to provide the assistance, the director may consider whether the requesting regulator is permitted and has agreed to provide assistance reciprocally within its state or foreign jurisdiction to the director on securities matters when requested; whether compliance with the request would violate or prejudice the public policy of this state; and the availability of resources and employees of the director to carry out the request for assistance.

Section 41. Section 603. (a) Civil action instituted by director. If the director believes that a person has engaged, is engaging, or is about to engage in an act, practice, or course of business constituting a violation of this Act or a rule adopted or order issued under this Act or that a person has, is, or is about to engage in an act, practice, or course of business that materially aids a violation of this Act or a rule adopted or order issued under this Act, the director may maintain an action in the circuit court to enjoin the act, practice, or course of business and to enforce compliance with this Act or a rule adopted or order issued under this Act.

(b) Relief available. In an action under this section and on a proper showing, the court may:

(1) Issue a permanent or temporary injunction, restraining order, or declaratory judgment;

(2) Order other appropriate or ancillary relief, which may include:

(A) An asset freeze, accounting, writ of attachment, writ of general or specific execution, and appointment of a receiver or conservator, that may be the director for the defendant or the defendant's assets;

- (B) Ordering the director to take charge and control of a defendant's property, including investment accounts and accounts in a depository institution, rents, and profits; to collect debts; and to acquire and dispose of property;
  - (C) Imposing a civil penalty up to ten thousand dollars for each violation; an order of rescission, restitution, or disgorgement directed to a person that has engaged in an act, practice, or course of business constituting a violation of this Act or the predecessor act or a rule adopted or order issued under this Act or the predecessor act; and
  - (D) Ordering the payment of prejudgment and postjudgment interest; or
- (3) Order such other relief as the court considers appropriate.

(c) No bond required. The director may not be required to post a bond in an action or proceeding under this Act.

Section 42. Section 604. (a) Issuance of an order or notice. If the director determines that a person has engaged, is engaging, or is about to engage in an act, practice, or course of business constituting a violation of this Act or a rule adopted or order issued under this Act or that a person has materially aided, is materially aiding, or is about to materially aid an act, practice, or course of business constituting a violation of this Act or a rule adopted or order issued under this Act, the director may:

- (1) Issue an order directing the person to cease and desist from engaging in the act, practice, or course of business or to take other action necessary or appropriate to comply with this Act;
- (2) Issue an order denying, suspending, revoking, or conditioning the exemptions for a broker-dealer under Section 401(b)(1)(D) or (F) or an investment adviser under Section 403(b)(1)(C); or

(3) Issue an order under Section 204.

(b) Summary process. An order under subsection (a) is effective on the date of issuance. Upon issuance of the order, the director shall promptly serve each person subject to the order with a copy of the order and a notice that the order has been entered. The order must include a statement whether the director will seek a civil penalty or costs of the investigation, a statement of the reasons for the order, and notice that, within fifteen days after receipt of a request in a record from the person, the matter will be scheduled for a hearing. If a person subject to the order does not request a hearing and none is ordered by the director within thirty days after the date of service of the order, the order, which may include a civil penalty or costs of the investigation if a civil penalty or costs were sought in the statement accompanying the order, becomes final as to that person by operation of law. If a hearing is requested or ordered, the director, after notice of and opportunity for hearing to each person subject to the order, may modify or vacate the order or extend it until final determination.

(c) Procedure for final order. If a hearing is requested or ordered pursuant to subsection (b), a hearing must be held pursuant to chapter 1-26. A final order may not be issued unless the director makes findings of fact and conclusions of law in a record pursuant to chapter 1-26. The final order may make final, vacate, or modify the order issued under subsection (a).

(d) Civil penalty. In a final order under subsection (c), the director may impose a civil penalty up to ten thousand dollars for each violation.

(e) Costs. In a final order, the director may charge the actual cost of an investigation or proceeding for a violation of this Act or a rule adopted or order issued under this Act.

(f) Filing of certified final order with court; effect of filing. If a petition for judicial review of a final order is not filed in accordance with Section 609, the director may file a certified copy of the final order with the clerk of a court of competent jurisdiction. The order so filed has the same effect as a judgment of the court and may be recorded, enforced, or satisfied in the same manner as a judgment of the court.

(g) Enforcement by court; further civil penalty. If a person does not comply with an order under this section, the director may petition a court of competent jurisdiction to enforce the order. The court may not require the director to post a bond in an action or proceeding under this section. If the court finds, after service and opportunity for hearing, that the person was not in compliance with the order, the court may adjudge the person in civil contempt of the order. The court may impose a further civil penalty against the person for contempt in an amount not more than ten thousand dollars, for each violation and may grant any other relief the court determines is just and proper in the circumstances.

Section 43. Section 605. (a) Issuance and adoption of forms, orders, and rules. The director may:

- (1) Issue forms and orders and, after notice and comment, may adopt and amend rules necessary or appropriate to carry out this Act and may repeal rules, including rules and forms governing registration statements, applications, notice filings, reports, and other records;
- (2) By rule, define terms, whether or not used in this Act, but those definitions may not be inconsistent with this Act; and
- (3) By rule, classify securities, persons, and transactions and adopt different requirements for different classes.

(b) Findings and cooperation. Under this Act, a rule or form may not be adopted or amended, or an order issued or amended, unless the director finds that the rule, form, order, or amendment is necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors and is consistent with the purposes intended by this Act. In adopting, amending, and repealing rules and forms, Section 608 applies in order to achieve uniformity among the states and coordination with federal laws in the form and content of registration statements, applications, reports, and other records, including the adoption of uniform rules, forms, and procedures.

(c) Financial statements. Subject to Section 15(h) of the Securities Exchange Act and Section 222 of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, the director may require that a financial statement filed under this Act be prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States and comply with other requirements specified by rule adopted or order issued under this Act.

A rule adopted or order issued under this Act may establish:

- (1) Subject to Section 15(h) of the Securities Exchange Act and Section 222 of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, the form and content of financial statements required under this Act;
- (2) Whether unconsolidated financial statements must be filed; and
- (3) Whether required financial statements must be audited by an independent certified public accountant.

(d) Interpretative opinions. The director may provide interpretative opinions or issue determinations that the director will not institute a proceeding or an action under this Act against a specified person for engaging in a specified act, practice, or course of business if the determination is consistent with this Act. A fifty dollar fee is required for interpretative opinions and no action letters.

(e) Effect of compliance. A penalty under this Act may not be imposed for, and liability does not arise from conduct that is engaged in or omitted in good faith believing it conforms to a rule, form, or order of the director under this Act.

(f) Presumption for public hearings. A hearing in an administrative proceeding under this Act must be conducted in public unless the director for good cause consistent with this Act determines that the hearing will not be so conducted.

Section 44. Section 606. (a) Public register of filings. The director shall maintain, or designate a person to maintain, a register of applications for registration of securities; registration statements; notice filings; applications for registration of broker-dealers, agents, investment advisers, and investment adviser representatives; notice filings by federal covered investment advisers that are or have been effective under this Act or the predecessor act; notices of claims of exemption from registration or notice filing requirements contained in a record; orders issued under this Act or the predecessor act; and interpretative opinions or no action determinations issued under this Act.

(b) Public availability. The director shall make all rules, forms, interpretative opinions, and orders available to the public.

(c) Copies of public records. The director shall furnish a copy of a record that is a public record or a certification that the public record does not exist to a person that so requests. A rule adopted under this Act may establish a reasonable charge for furnishing the record or certification. A copy of the record certified or a certificate by the director of a record's nonexistence is prima facie evidence of a record or its nonexistence.

Section 45. Section 607. (a) Presumption of public records. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (b), records obtained by the director or filed under this Act, including a record contained in or filed with a registration statement, application, notice filing, or report, are public records and are available for public examination.

(b) Nonpublic records. The following records are not public records and are not available for public examination under subsection (a):

- (1) A record obtained by the director in connection with an audit or inspection under Section 411(d) or an investigation under Section 602;
- (2) A part of a record filed in connection with a registration statement under Sections 301 and 303 through 305 or a record under Section 411(d) that contains trade secrets or confidential information if the person filing the registration statement or report has asserted a claim of confidentiality or privilege that is authorized by law;

- (3) A record that is not required to be provided to the director or filed under this Act and is provided to the director only on the condition that the record will not be subject to public examination or disclosure;
- (4) A nonpublic record received from a person specified in Section 608(a); and
- (5) Any social security number, residential address unless used as a business address, and residential telephone number unless used as a business telephone number, contained in a record that is filed; and
- (6) A record obtained by the director through a designee of the director or that a rule or order under this Act determines has been:
  - (A) Expunged from the director's records by the designee; or
  - (B) Determined to be nonpublic or nondisclosable by that designee if the director finds the determination to be in the public interest and for the protection of investors.

(c) Director discretion to disclose. If disclosure is for the purpose of a civil, administrative, or criminal investigation, action, or proceeding or to a person specified in Section 608(a), the director may disclose a record obtained in connection with an audit or inspection under Section 411(d) or a record obtained in connection with an investigation under Section 602.

Section 46. Section 608. (a) Objective of uniformity. The director shall, in its discretion, cooperate, coordinate, consult, and, subject to Section 607, share records and information with the securities regulator of another state, Canada, a Canadian province or territory, a foreign jurisdiction, the Securities and Exchange Commission, the United States Department of Justice, the Commodity Futures Trading Commission, the Federal Trade Commission, the Securities Investor Protection Corporation, a self-regulatory organization, a national or international organization of securities regulators, a federal or state banking and insurance regulator, and a governmental law enforcement agency to effectuate greater uniformity in securities matters among the federal government, self-regulatory organizations, states, and foreign governments.

(b) Policies to consider. In cooperating, coordinating, consulting, and sharing records and information under this section and in acting by rule, order, or waiver under this Act, the director shall, in its discretion, take into consideration in carrying out the public interest the following general policies:

- (1) Maximizing effectiveness of regulation for the protection of investors;
- (2) Maximizing uniformity in federal and state regulatory standards; and
- (3) Minimizing burdens on the business of capital formation, without adversely affecting essentials of investor protection.

(c) Subjects for cooperation. The cooperation, coordination, consultation, and sharing of records and information authorized by this section includes:

- (1) Establishing or employing one or more designees as a central depository for registration and notice filings under this Act and for records required or allowed to be maintained under this Act;
- (2) Developing and maintaining uniform forms;
- (3) Conducting a joint examination or investigation;
- (4) Holding a joint administrative hearing;
- (5) Instituting and prosecuting a joint civil or administrative proceeding;
- (6) Sharing and exchanging personnel;
- (7) Coordinating registrations under Sections 301 and 401 through 404 and exemptions under Section 203;
- (8) Sharing and exchanging records, subject to Section 607;
- (9) Formulating rules, statements of policy, guidelines, forms, and interpretative opinions and releases;

- (10) Formulating common systems and procedures;
- (11) Notifying the public of proposed rules, forms, statements of policy, and guidelines;
- (12) Attending conferences and other meetings among securities regulators, which may include representatives of governmental and private sector organizations involved in capital formation, deemed necessary or appropriate to promote or achieve uniformity; and
- (13) Developing and maintaining a uniform exemption from registration for small issuers, and taking other steps to reduce the burden of raising investment capital by small businesses.

Section 47. Section 609. (a) Judicial review of orders. A final order issued by the director under this Act is subject to judicial review in accordance with chapter 1-26.

(b) Judicial review of rules. A rule adopted under this Act is subject to judicial review in accordance with chapter 1-26.

Section 48. Section 610. (a) Sales and offers to sell. Sections 301, 302, 401(a), 402(a), 403(a), 404(a), 501, 506, 509, and 510 do not apply to a person that sells or offers to sell a security unless the offer to sell or the sale is made in this state or the offer to purchase or the purchase is made and accepted in this state.

(b) Purchases and offers to purchase. Sections 401(a), 402(a), 403(a), 404(a), 501, 506, 509, and 510 do not apply to a person that purchases or offers to purchase a security unless the offer to purchase or the purchase is made in this state or the offer to sell or the sale is made and accepted in this state.

(c) Offers in this state. For the purpose of this section, an offer to sell or to purchase a security is made in this State, whether or not either party is then present in this state, if the offer:

- (1) Originates from within this state; or
- (2) Is directed by the offeror to a place in this state and received at the place to which it is directed.

(d) Acceptances in this state. For the purpose of this section, an offer to purchase or to sell is accepted in this state, whether or not either party is then present in this state, if the acceptance:

- (1) Is communicated to the offeror in this state and the offeree reasonably believes the offeror to be present in this state and the acceptance is received at the place in this state to which it is directed; and
- (2) Has not previously been communicated to the offeror, orally or in a record, outside this state.

(e) Publications, radio, television, or electronic communications. An offer to sell or to purchase is not made in this state when a publisher circulates or there is circulated on the publisher's behalf in this state a bona fide newspaper or other publication of general, regular, and paid circulation that is not published in this state, or that is published in this state but has had more than two thirds of its circulation outside this state during the previous twelve months or when a radio or television program or other electronic communication originating outside this state is received in this state. A radio or television program, or other electronic communication is considered as having originated in this state if either the broadcast studio or the originating source of transmission is located in this state, unless:

- (1) The program or communication is syndicated and distributed from outside this state for redistribution to the general public in this state;
- (2) The program or communication is supplied by a radio, television, or other electronic network with the electronic signal originating from outside this state for redistribution to the general public in this state;
- (3) The program or communication is an electronic communication that originates outside this state and is captured for redistribution to the general public in this state by a community antenna or cable, radio, cable television, or other electronic system; or

- (4) The program or communication consists of an electronic communication that originates in this state, but which is not intended for distribution to the general public in this state.

(f) Investment advice and misrepresentations. Sections 403(a), 404(a), 405(a), 502, 505, and 506 apply to a person if the person engages in an act, practice, or course of business instrumental in effecting prohibited or actionable conduct in this state, whether or not either party is then present in this state.

Section 49. Section 611. (a) Signed consent to service of process. A consent to service of process complying with Section 611 required by this Act must be signed and filed in the form required by a rule or order under this Act. A consent appointing the director the person's agent for service of process in a noncriminal action or proceeding against the person, or the person's successor or personal representative under this Act or a rule adopted or order issued under this Act after the consent is filed, has the same force and validity as if the service were made personally on the person filing the consent. A person that has filed a consent complying with this subsection in connection with a previous application for registration or notice filing need not file an additional consent.

(b) Conduct constituting appointment of agent for service. If a person, including a nonresident of this state, engages in an act, practice, or course of business prohibited or made actionable by this Act or a rule adopted or order issued under this Act and the person has not filed a consent to service of process under subsection (a), the act, practice, or course of business constitutes the appointment of the director as the person's agent for service of process in a noncriminal action or proceeding against the person or the person's successor or personal representative.

(c) Procedure for service of process. Service under subsection (a) or (b) may be made by providing a copy of the process to the office of the director, but it is not effective unless:

- (1) The plaintiff, which may be the director, promptly sends notice of the service and a copy of the process, return receipt requested, to the defendant or respondent at the address set forth in the consent to service of process or, if a consent to service of process has not been filed, at the last known address, or takes other reasonable steps to give notice; and

- (2) The plaintiff files an affidavit of compliance with this subsection in the action or proceeding on or before the return day of the process, if any, or within the time that the court, or the director in a proceeding before the director, allows.

(d) Service in administrative proceedings or civil actions by director. Service pursuant to subsection (c) may be used in a proceeding before the director or by the director in a civil action in which the director is the moving party.

(e) Opportunity to defend. If process is served under subsection (c), the court, or the director in a proceeding before the director, shall order continuances as are necessary or appropriate to afford the defendant or respondent reasonable opportunity to defend.

Section 50. Section 612. If any provision of this Act or its application to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the invalidity does not affect other provisions or applications of this Act that can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are severable.

Section 51. Section 701. This Act, takes effect on July 1, 2004.

Section 52. Section 702. That §§ 47-31A-101 to 47-31A-420, inclusive, be repealed.

The predecessor act exclusively governs all actions or proceedings that are pending on the effective date of this Act or may be instituted on the basis of conduct occurring before the effective date of this Act, but a civil action may not be maintained to enforce any liability under the predecessor act unless instituted within any period of limitation that applied when the cause of action accrued or within five years after the effective date of this Act, whichever is earlier.

(b) Continued effectiveness under predecessor act. All effective registrations under the predecessor act, all administrative orders relating to the registrations, rules, statements of policy, interpretative opinions, declaratory rulings, no action determinations, and conditions imposed on the registrations under the predecessor act remain in effect while they would have remained in effect if this Act had not been enacted. They are considered to have been filed, issued, or imposed under this Act, but are exclusively governed by the predecessor act.

(c) Applicability of predecessor act to offers or sales. The predecessor act exclusively applies to an offer or sale made within one year after the effective date of this Act pursuant to an offering made in good faith before the effective date of this Act on the basis of an exemption available under the predecessor act.
