

SENATE COMMEMORATION NO. 24

Introduced by: Senators Gray, Dempster, Hansen (Tom), McNenny, and Olson (Ed) and Representatives Rounds, Dykstra, Heineman, Juhnke, and Olson (Ryan)

A LEGISLATIVE COMMEMORATION, Honoring the Capital City Children's Chorus for being selected to perform at America's 400th birthday celebration in Jamestown, Virginia, on America's Anniversary Weekend, May 10-14, 2007.

WHEREAS, the Capital City Children's Chorus was chosen to represent the state of South Dakota in this national event which celebrates the landing the "new Americans" in Jamestown, Virginia, in 1607; and

WHEREAS, the Capital City Children's Chorus is composed of talented fourth through ninth graders from the Pierre/Fort Pierre area who have worked hard to earn this distinguished honor; and

WHEREAS, the Capital City Children's Chorus has a dedicated director, Barb Newman, and assistant, Ginny Lors, whose continuous guidance, leadership, and efforts have greatly benefited the continued success of the chorus:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT COMMEMORATED, by the Eighty-second Legislature of the State of South Dakota, that the Capital City Children's Chorus be honored for its selection to represent South Dakota at America's 400th birthday celebration in Jamestown, Virginia.
